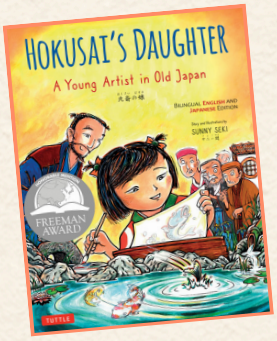
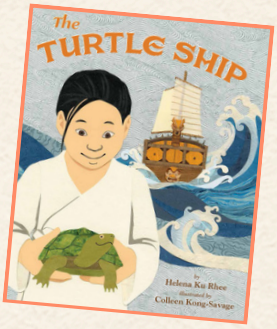
TEACHING BIOGRAPHY THROUGH EAST ASIAN PICTUREBOOKS

AN IN-PERSON PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP FOR UTAH K-8 TEACHERS

SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 2027 FROM 9:00AM-4:30PM
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

Explore the possibilities of biography while learning about the lives of interesting and famous people in East Asia, past and present. Consider six picture books that accurately feature China, Japan, and Korea to enhance your integrated social studies and literacy curriculum, as well as students' development of written and visual literacy skills.





BENEFITS:

- Presentations by experts in the field.
- The 6 featured books & resources for teaching.
- Parking and lunch provided.
- $100 completion award.
- Certificate of completion for 6 professional development contact hours.

ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION:

- Open to elementary and middle school teachers.
- Priority will be given to teachers who plan to incorporate the books into their instruction.
- Enrollment is limited to 25 teachers.
- Applications close on March 1 or when full.

APPLY HERE!

FOR INQUIRIES:
LYNN.KALINAUSKAS@COLORADO.EDU

This course is made possible through funding from the Freeman Foundation to the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado Boulder.