Natural Resources Law & Policy Certificate

This confirms that _____has satisfied all requirements for the JD degree, and the Natural Resources Law and Policy Certificate at the University of Colorado Law School including—

- At least 95 total credit hours in law school courses or in graduate-level courses approved for the certificate program by the Dean's Office, in consultation with the Director of the Natural Resources Law Center. _____

- At least 18 credit hours in natural resources law and policy courses, in addition to administrative law, as set forth below _____

- Required Courses (indicate semester and year)
  - Administrative Law _____
  - The Advanced Natural Resources Law Seminar or other natural resources law-related seminar approved for the certificate program by the Dean's Office, in consultation with the Director of the Natural Resources Law & Policy Certificate _____

- At least three of the following courses: (indicate semester and year)
  - Environmental Law _____
  - Foundations of Natural Resource Law and Policy _____
  - Energy Law & Regulation _____
  - Public Lands _____
  - Water Law _____

- At least two of the following courses: (indicate semester and year)
  - Climate Change Law & Policy _____
  - Mining & Energy Law _____
  - Energy Insecurity & Sustainable Energy _____
  - Oil & International Relations
  - Oil & Gas _____
  - Environmental Litigation _____
  - International Environmental Law _____
  - Toxics and Hazardous Waste _____
  - Wildlife and the Law _____
  - Land Use Planning _____
  - Natural Resources Litigation Clinic _____

- Colorado Journal on International and Environmental Law and Policy _____
- Externship with Natural Resources law focus _____
- Any natural resources-related course in a non-law department (e.g. ENVS) approved for the certificate program by the Dean's Office. _____

As set forth and described above, I hereby certify that _____ has met the requirements for the Natural Resources Law and Policy Certificate at the University of Colorado Law School.

[Signature of student] Date

Mark Squillace, Professor Date