Picture Sorting Cards

a.
b.
c.
d. e.
f.
Handout

Name

Venn Diagram Worksheet

In Japan

In the United States

© 2010 Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado

Two Homes
Living in Two Cultures Worksheet

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>In ____________ I like to:</th>
<th>Here is a picture of what I like to do:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Making Connections Worksheet

The title of the book I read is The Wakame Gatherers. The main idea of the story is:

_____________________________________________________________.

A picture from the book:

This part reminded me of when I:

_____________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________
Making Connections Checklist

My Making Connections Worksheet:

____ Tells the main idea of The Wakame Gatherers.

____ Shows a scene from the story. Write the page number of the scene here: ____.

____ Connects the picture with an event in my life.

____ Shows careful work.