

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO EXECUTIVE MBA PROGRAM ORGANIZATION SPONSORSHIP STATEMENT

Supporting your employee through the CU Executive MBA can provide an immediate return to your organization through exposure to leading edge concepts, latest business trends, and implementation of best practices. In the Executive MBA, your employee will be part of a group of leading decision makers who can create new opportunities for your business.

This application is available in electronic format at: www.colorado.edu/EMBA

(Individuals who are self-employed or own their own business should substitute a third letter of recommendation in place of this Organization Sponsorship Statement.)

Name of Applicant:

First Last

Title Company

This sponsorship form should be completed by an individual authorized by the organization to grant sponsorship to the applicant. Admission to the Executive MBA program requires the support and sponsorship of the applicant's organization.

To be completed by the sponsor:

Our organization understands that support of our employee during the Executive MBA program is a critical factor in the successful completion of the program. If our employee is accepted into the Executive MBA program, our organization agrees to do the following during the 21 month program:

- 1) Release our employee from work on all class days and multiday seminars. (EMBA classes are full-day sessions scheduled on alternating Fridays and Saturdays).
- 2) Ensure that our employee's business travel will not conflict with class days.
- 3) Commit to not transferring our employee out of the area during the program.
- 4) Provide financial support for the program's tuition as outlined below.

Signature of authorized representative of sponsoring organization

Name (Please print)

Title Date

Tuition support:

Please check the statement that applies:

- Our organization will fund 100% of the Executive MBA tuition for our employee.
Please forward tuition bills to the following:

- Our organization will fund ____% of the Executive MBA tuition and our employee will be responsible for the remainder.
- Our organization understands and supports the time commitment our employee is making in the Executive MBA; however, our employee will pay the Executive MBA tuition.

Please mail this completed form to: Executive MBA Program
University of Colorado
PO Box 480006
Denver, CO 80248-0006