Course Materials

A good deal of the course materials are available at the World Wide Web address given above.

There is also a very good textbook that can be purchased - please note the textbook is optional.

Money, the Financial System and the Economy, by Glenn Hubbard. Addison, Wesley and Longman publishing.

In addition, students are urged to keep up with current economic events by reading sources such as newspapers, periodicals and by watching the news on television.

Grading

The class grade is based on two exams, and several quizzes.

- Exams 1 and 2 will comprise 60% of the final grade in the class.
- Quizzes comprise 40% of the final grade.
