Section 010: T Th, 2:00 - 3:15, Education 220
Section 150: T Th, 12:30 - 1:45, Chemistry 132

Texts:
1. Tom Riddell, Steve Stamos, Jean Shackelford, Economics: A Tool for Understanding Society (referred to as "Riddell")
2. Robert Carson, Macroeconomic Issues Today: Alternative Approaches (referred to as "Carson")
3. Dollars and Sense, Special Issue: Inflation (referred to as "Dollars and Sense")

Additional Reading Assignment: The business and economics section of Newsweek.

EXAM POLICY: The final exam is optional for anyone who has taken all three exams during the semester. When the third exam is handed back, you people will receive a tentative grade for the class which will be permanent if you do not take the final. If you wish to improve your grade, you may try to do so by taking the final. If you do not take all three exams during the semester, you must take the final. There are no make-up exams during the semester.

Week Of: Reading
Sept. 1 Riddell: Prefaces, Ch. 1
Sept. 8 Riddell: Ch. 2
Carson: Part 1 (Introduction), Part 3 (Conclusion)
Sept. 15 Riddell: Ch. 3-6
Sept. 22 Riddell: Ch. 7-8
Sept. 29 Riddell: Ch. 9-10
Carson: Issue 5
Oct. 6 Riddell: Ch. 14 1st EXAM
Oct. 13 Riddell: Ch. 15-16
Carson: Issue 1
Oct. 20 Riddell: Ch. 16 (continued), 17
Oct. 27 Carson: Issue 6
Riddell: Ch. 18
Nov. 3 Riddell: Ch. 19
Nov. 10 Carson: Issues 2-4 2nd EXAM
Nov. 17 Dollars and Sense
Nov. 24 Riddell: Ch. 24-25
Dec. 1 Riddell: Ch. 26
Carson: Issue 8
Dec. 8 Third EXAM (worth only \( \frac{1}{2} \) as much as each of the previous exams)
Dec. 13-19 Final EXAM