COURSE INFORMATION

Economics 201
Summer 1985
Professor Morrissett

Instructors and Office Hours

Professor Irving Morrissett is responsible for the class. He is assisted by Mr. Roman Perez-Miranda, a graduate student in economics.

Regular office hours will be held as follows, in Economics Building 202:
  Professor Morrissett: Tuesday and Thursday, 10:45-12:15
  Mr. Perez-Miranda: Monday and Wednesday, 2:00-3:00

In addition, appointments at other times can be made with Professor Morrissett and Mr. Perez-Miranda. Professor Morrissett's telephone number is 492-8154 or 492-6670. In addition to his office at 202 Economics, he has an office at 855 Broadway.

Texts
This book is required.

Assignments
Assignments are given on a separate sheets. Students are expected to read each daily assignment before class.

Class Procedures
Regular classes will run from 9:10 to 10:40, Monday through Friday, in Geology 201. These periods will consist of lectures, class work, discussion, and questions. In addition, students are encouraged to make use, singly or in small groups, of the office hours of the professor and the teaching assistant.

All students should have been assigned to recitation sessions, which will be conducted by Mr. Perez-Miranda as follows:

Monday 10:00-11:00 Econ. 2 R612 MWF 1:00-2:00 Econ. 119 R201
Wednesday 2:00-3:00 Econ. 2 R613 TTH 2:00-3:00 Econ. 119 R202
Friday 11:00-12:00 Econ. 2 R611 MWF 11:00-12:00 Econ. 119 R203

Attendance
Attendance at classes and recitations is expected. Students are responsible for all class work and for any information or announcements made in class or in recitations, which might relate to course content or to course procedures.

Examinations
Examinations will be given as set out in the schedule of Topics and Assignments. Note that there are four examinations, on Parts I, II, III, and IV. Exam IV will be given on August 15. A comprehensive examination will be given on August 16. Each exam will be graded on the basis of 100 points.

Examinations will consist of multiple-choice questions and explanations of answers given to multiple-choice. Examinations from Professor Morrissett's Economics 201 class of Fall 1984 are on file in Norlin Library.
Grading
Each of the five examinations will be graded on the basis of 100 points. The lowest score on the first four exams (not including the fifth, given during the final exam period, which will be comprehensive) will be dropped and the remaining four exams will be totaled to determine the final score on exams. All students must take the fifth comprehensive exam.

Frequently during the semester students will be asked to hand in written materials which will in some cases be written in class or recitation periods and in some cases outside of class. The materials will not be graded or returned to students, but will serve the instructor as a qualitative judgment of student participation. In every case (unless instructed otherwise), these materials should each consist of one sheet only, written on both sides (if needed), on 8-1/2 by 11 paper (not torn from a notebook, which makes ragged edges and difficulty in filing).

Final grades, based on examinations, will be determined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>360-400</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>320-359</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>280-319</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>Below 280</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Student participation, as judged by participation in class, recitations, and especially with respect to written materials, may add as much as one grade to a student’s grade. Students should leave a stamped, addressed postcard or envelope with Mr. Perez-Miranda or Professor Morrissett before the semester ends. Graded papers for exams four and five may be picked up during regular office hours, Monday-Friday, at 855 Broadway, any time before November 1, 1985. Students who have reason to question their course grade should address a note to Professor Morrissett, before October 1, 1985, indicating reasons for questioning the grade and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope for a reply.

Cheating
College students have been known to cheat on examinations. Any cheating that is discovered will be dealt with unsympathetically.

You should not only avoid cheating, you should also avoid the appearance of cheating.
