This course will deal with the main problems and issues in economic development. Some topics will be dealt with in more detail than others. Among them: banking and development, trade and international debt, and the role of planning in economic development.

MAIN TEXT:

You are encouraged to read the New York Times and/or the Wall Street Journal regularly. Required readings are available at Kinko's:

3. Gunnar Myrdal, "International Inequality and Foreign Aid in Retrospect", in Pioneers in Development, ed. by Gerald Meier and Dudley Seers, Oxford University Press 1984, pp. 149-165.
Part I: Theory and Measurement in Economic Development

Part II: Ingredients of Development

Part III: Domestic Problems and Policies

Part IV: International Problems and Policies

Evaluation: 2 midterm exams and one final exam counting for 30%, 30%, and 40% respectively.

Midterm Exams: 1st Midterm - Monday, October 1st
2nd Midterm - Monday, November 5th

NO MAKE-UPS for missed exams.

Comprehensive Final - 40%, Tuesday, December 18, 7:30 am - 10:30 am
Final must be taken at the scheduled time!