Dr. Andrew Safir
President

Dr. Andrew Safir has been the President of Recon Research Corporation since 1980. He has extensive experience in general economic analysis, forecasting, antitrust economics, and energy markets.

During the 1970's, Dr. Safir held a variety of positions with the U.S. Federal Government. In 1972, he was appointed as a staff member to the President's Council of Economic Advisers specializing in international trade policy, and in mid-1973 joined the White House Council on International Economic Policy as a professional member specializing in energy and international finance. In 1974, Dr. Safir moved to the Department of Justice, where he served as the senior economic advisor to the Office of Justice Policy, Planning, and Research, and in late 1975 was appointed as the Assistant Director of the Office of International Energy Policy at the U.S. Treasury. He left this position to join the Administration of Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr. in 1978 as Chief Business Economist for the State of California, although he remained a special advisor to the US General Accounting Office specializing in energy, international finance and national security matters throughout much of the 1980s.

Dr. Safir holds a Ph.D. and MA in economics from Tufts University, and a BA in Psychology from the University of Colorado. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the National Association of Forensic Economists. Dr. Safir is also a Trustee of the University of Colorado Foundation, the private endowment arm of the University, and an Advisory Board Member of the CU Department of Economics.
