

Undergraduate Creative Writing Application for Instructor Consent Fall 2008

Students who have not formally been admitted to the Creative Writing Program must submit a manuscript to the Department prior to registration in order to take a workshop beyond the 2000-level. Please submit five to seven poems for poetry workshops and/or one short story for fiction workshops. Manuscripts will be retained in the Department for one semester only. Each workshop may be taken three times for credit. Students may not take two poetry or two fiction workshops in the Department during the same semester.
