When you ARRIVE

Attend your department orientation.

Learn your rights and responsibilities as a graduate student.

Get your Buff OneCard. Pick up your card at the Campus Card Office, C1900. Cards cost a $25 fee for printing services on campus. Campus Card can be used at buffconnect.com, 303-492-2035.

Check MyBuff. Confirm your schedule, pay your fees, check on financial aid, new announcements, take care of legalities.

Submit immunization and immunization forms. Visit health.colorado.edu, health, 303-492-2011.

Begin establishing Colorado residency for in-state tuition. If you are eligible to register for residency, the first steps are to visit https://registrar.colorado.edu and register your Buff OneCard.

Reserve a study carrel. Contact Norlin Libraries to reserve a study carrel on campus. Print out your library card or show your Buff OneCard at the circulation desk.

Find a job. If you need to work, you can find job listings at mycuinfo.colorado.edu. Domestic U.S. students may qualify for federal work-study. If you need to work, you can find job listings at MyCUinfo. Domestic U.S. students may qualify for work-study.

Find a sitter. As graduate students, you are responsible for arranging your own childcare. We recommend seeing a list of pre-screened babysitters at sittercity.com/CU.

Complete discrimination and harassment training. Visit the Student Affairs home page to register and take the training.

Familiarize yourself with the certificate programs. There may be some certificate programs that complement your degree. Check admissions/graduate_programs/certificates.

Sign up for Campus Alerts. Receive real-time information about campus closures and other emergencies. alerts.colorado.edu.

Key Student SERVICES

Here are a few key student services to get you started. For more information, visit colorado.edu/GraduateSchool/services or colorado.edu/students.

CliffsNotes. Can you afford to take a break? Need advice? Find a community, a club, an organization, or a local volunteer? The Buffs have a club for you! CliffsNotes is a Buffs student-organized social networking platform for Colorado Buffs.

Cultural Unity & Engagement Center (CUE). Resources and training for first-generation students, international students and students of color. colorado.edu/gtp.

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS). Resources for international students and scholars on a variety of topics ranging from immigration to housing to health care. colorado.edu/gtp, colorado.edu/uggs.

Information Technology. Online tour of IT services with info on Desire2Learn (D2L), on-campus printing, free software and more: colorado.edu/it.

Library Services. Connect with your subject specialist, arrange research consultations, use group study rooms, software programs and study carrels in libraries across campus. Visit library.colorado.edu/colorado, 303-492-7240.

Safety tips. Find a job. Visit the Student Affairs home page to register and take the training.

Sittercity. Find (or offer your services as) pre-screened babysitters, nannies, elder care providers, tutors and more. visit sittercity.com/CU

Writing Center. Get help with writing and research in all disciplines. Norlin Library, colorado.edu/pubs/writingcenter.

Wardenburg Health Center. Campus primary health care facility located conveniently on campus. Services include primary care, psychological health, sports medicine, women’s health and your regular checkups. colorado.edu/health, 303-492-4788.

WFS. Free counseling and support in services to students from across disciplines. parking.library, colorado.edu/uggs/wfสงd/bestfriends.

When you ARRIVE

Attend your department orientation.

Learn your rights and responsibilities as a graduate student.

Get your Buff OneCard. Pick up your card at the Campus Card Office, C1900. Cards cost a $25 fee for printing services on campus. Campus Card can be used at buffconnect.com, 303-492-2035.

Check MyBUFF. Confirm your schedule, pay your fees, check on financial aid, new announcements, take care of legalities.

Submit immunization and immunization forms. Visit health.colorado.edu, health, 303-492-2011.

Begin establishing Colorado residency for in-state tuition. If you are eligible to register for residency, the first steps are to visit https://registrar.colorado.edu and register your Buff OneCard.

Reserve a study carrel. Contact Norlin Libraries to reserve a study carrel on campus. Print out your library card or show your Buff OneCard at the circulation desk.

Find a job. If you need to work, you can find job listings at mycuinfo.colorado.edu. Domestic U.S. students may qualify for federal work-study. If you need to work, you can find job listings at MyCUinfo. Domestic U.S. students may qualify for work-study.

Find a sitter. As graduate students, you are responsible for arranging your own childcare. We recommend seeing a list of pre-screened babysitters at sittercity.com/CU.

Complete discrimination and harassment training. Visit the Student Affairs home page to register and take the training.

Familiarize yourself with the certificate programs. There may be some certificate programs that complement your degree. Check admissions/graduate_programs/certificates.

Sign up for Campus Alerts. Receive real-time information about campus closures and other emergencies. alerts.colorado.edu.

Key Student SERVICES

Here are a few key student services to get you started. For more information, visit colorado.edu/GraduateSchool/services or colorado.edu/students.

CliffsNotes. Can you afford to take a break? Need advice? Find a community, a club, an organization, or a local volunteer? The Buffs have a club for you! CliffsNotes is a Buffs student-organized social networking platform for Colorado Buffs.

Cultural Unity & Engagement Center (CUE). Resources and training for first-generation students, international students and students of color. colorado.edu/gtp.

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS). Resources for international students and scholars on a variety of topics ranging from immigration to housing to health care. colorado.edu/gtp, colorado.edu/uggs.

Information Technology. Online tour of IT services with info on Desire2Learn (D2L), on-campus printing, free software and more: colorado.edu/it.

Library Services. Connect with your subject specialist, arrange research consultations, use group study rooms, software programs and study carrels in libraries across campus. Visit library.colorado.edu/colorado, 303-492-7240.

Safety tips. Find a job. Visit the Student Affairs home page to register and take the training.

Sittercity. Find (or offer your services as) pre-screened babysitters, nannies, elder care providers, tutors and more. visit sittercity.com/CU

Writing Center. Get help with writing and research in all disciplines. Norlin Library, colorado.edu/pubs/writingcenter.

Wardenburg Health Center. Campus primary health care facility located conveniently on campus. Services include primary care, psychological health, sports medicine, women’s health and your regular checkups. colorado.edu/health, 303-492-4788.

WFS. Free counseling and support in services to students from across disciplines. parking.library, colorado.edu/uggs/wfสงd/bestfriends.