

LRAP • LRAP • LRA

Theatre & Performance Event • “The Vagina Monologues” • Wednesday, April 2 at 8:00pm • Boulder Theatre

Join Libby Prof. Stewart Lawler and other LRAP students for a trip to this celebrated, yet controversial performance/event. This Obie award winning play continues to evolve and engage audiences, & continues to bring attention to a global movement to end violence against women and girls. Those interested should stop by our office (rm 176) to sign up & drop off a $15 REFUNDABLE deposit. You must RSVP by Friday, March 21 at 2:00pm. We will meet on Wed., April 2nd at 7:15 pm. in Libby Lobby to take the bus to the theatre.

Museum of Contemporary Art, Denver and Denver Art Museum • Saturday, April 5 • Denver

Perhaps you have visited the Denver Art Museum. However, don't forget another entrant to the blossoming of new museum / exhibition scene in the greater Boulder/Denver. The “New” MCA, designed by David Adjaye, one of the leading architects in the world today, “is at once bold and refined, meeting all the criteria set forth when a permanent home.”

On April 5th, Profs. Deborah Haynes, Kira Van Lil, and Tyler Alpern will take LRAP students for a day at the Museum of Contemporary Arts and the Denver Art Museum. The Denver Art Museum currently is exhibiting its ‘blockbuster’ Inspiring Impressionism which features about 100 works of art, including 65 artworks by impressionist painters like Monet, Degas, and Renoir. We will meet in Libby Lobby at 9:00 am as our bus to Denver will depart at 9:15 am. Lunch will be provided. If you are interested, please stop by the Libby RAP office (rm 176) to sign up!

60th Annual World Affairs Conference • April 7th – 11th beginning at Coors Event Center at 7:30pm

The World Affairs conference is not ‘just’ about world affairs. It is an annual CU-Boulder event bringing together speakers, critics, politicians, artists, and many more to discuss the current state of the arts, media, science, diplomacy, technology, environment, spirituality, politics, business, medicine, human rights, and so on. Roger Ebert, who holds a record of thirty-seven consecutive years of participation in the CWA, refers to the event as “the Conference on Everything Conceivable.” Mark your calendars now, and visit the website <<http://www.colorado.edu/cwa/>> for a schedule! You'll be surprised. The keynote speaker for the Conference on World Affairs is Wendy Chamberlain, Ambassador to Pakistan.

Later in April we are pleased to host two more distinguished guests on consecutive nights. Former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright will Coors Center on Wednesday, April 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Coors Center as a guest of our student-run Distinguished Speakers Board.

DON'T FORGET: Yoga Every Mon. 7:00pm with Amy Burtaine / Libby Basement!

Other Events on Campus

Visiting Artist Program (Karen Kunc) • View work and hear discussion from nationally recognized artists!

Tuesday April 1st, 7:00 p.m. Fleming Law Building

Spring 2008 MFA Thesis Exhibition • “You can never go home.” Held this year at The Dairy Center for the Arts, 2590 Walnut St. April 4-17th. Opening, April 4th, 5-7 pm.

Film: "Shine a Light" • Martin Scorsese directs this documentary about the Rolling Stones chronicling the Stones' A Bigger Bang Tour.

Tuesday April 2nd at 7:00 p.m. Cristol Chemistry Building

And don't forget to check out the campus events calendar: <http://www.colorado.edu/eventscalender/index.html>. There are (often free) musical recitals occurring nearly everyday, <http://www.colorado.edu/music/events/calendar.html>. Support musicians and attend a recital!

Email with ideas or questions:

libbyrap@colorado.edu, mackenzie.wirtz@colorado.edu