Challenger

29 Jan 1986

To ride upon the fury
Aloft on golden wings
To touch the outer limits
In search of greater things

These dreams they carried with them
Must continue to survive

The ideals and aspirations
Toward which all of us should strive

Cry not for those who left us
Don't ask god why they died
Just remember they had ambition
And as Americans they tried
