Part III: Student Certification

As a basis for non-degree loan eligibility at the University of Colorado at Boulder, I agree to comply with the terms listed below.

- Title IV loan eligibility is limited to a maximum of 12 consecutive months.
- Minimum enrollment required for non-degree financial aid is 6 hours.
- A student is ineligible for non-degree aid if concurrently admitted to a degree program at another institution.
- Each semester and cumulative GPA must be a minimum of 2.0.
- You must complete 100% of all coursework you attempt each semester. While on contract you may not enroll in self-paced course work. You will not be eligible for future non degree federal aid if you receive an I, F, or W for any coursework during a term. Withdrawing for the term will result in your financial aid being adjusted.
- Satisfactory completion of coursework taken as a non-degree student does not guarantee admission into a degree program.
- Non-degree students applying to a graduate program may be limited in the number of transferable credits into graduate program.

I understand that the financial aid money I receive through this program is to be used for paying my Continuing Education bill. I further understand that if I exhaust my financial aid eligibility within the 12 month period, I am responsible for the remainder of my bill.
