

Subject: English Dept's Fall Speakers on Teaching

Date: Friday, August 25, 2000 8:33 AM

From: NUGENT TERESA LANPHER <nugentt@ucsub.Colorado.EDU>

Reply-To: NUGENT TERESA LANPHER <nugentt@ucsub.Colorado.EDU>

To: <engl-teach@lists.Colorado.edu>, <ego@lists.Colorado.edu>

Cc: <MacKenzie.Carignan@colorado.edu>, <macdonai@ucsu.colorado.edu>, <gtpleads@spot.colorado.edu>

Hi all,

Here is the schedule for the speaker series on teaching that is part of the pedagogy workshop. These one-hour talks are geared toward teaching in the English department, and are open to anyone at the university. They also count as discipline-specific workshop hours in the English department towards the Graduate Teacher Program certification.

All talks begin promptly at 2pm on Fridays in the Mabel Van Duzee room of Norlin Library (unless otherwise noted).

Sept. 1: A Delicate Balance: Being Both Student and Instructor
Panel of English Literature Graduate Students

**** Please note that the Sept 1 talk will begin at 3PM ****

The following talks begin at 2PM:

Sept. 8: Reading, Writing, Discussing
Prof. Marty Bickman

Sept. 15: Evaluating and Grading Student Essays
Prof. Karen Jacobs

Sept. 22: "The Basics" of Teaching at CU
Prof. Mary Klages

Sept. 29: Teaching Poetry
Prof. Tim Morton

Oct. 20: Integrating Theory into Your Teaching
Prof. Marty Bickman

Oct. 27: Designing a Syllabus
Prof. Doug Berger

Nov. 3: Addressing Different Styles of Learning--Designing Assignments and Combatting Plagiarism
Teresa Nugent

Nov. 10: Getting Technical: Using Technology in the Classroom
Prof. Mary Klages

Additional talks will be arranged and added to the schedule soon.

If you have any questions, please contact me at teresa.nugent@colorado.edu