Your application will be processed as soon as this form and the following items are submitted to the Graduate Teacher Program/COPFFN's Assistant Director in ATLAS 201.

1. A letter of application with expression of interest and a tentative plan for a digital media-based mentorship project in your field (including budget).
2. Current Curriculum Vitae & CU transcript (photocopies OK).
3. Departmental Approval Form.
4. A record of participation in GTP activities.

If selected for the final pool of applicants, you will be contacted for an interview with the GTP Director and COPFFN Campus Coordinator.

Please read and sign the following:

I understand that as a Provost's Fellow I am expected to respond to emails and participate in as many COPFFN activities as possible including 3 GTP workshops, at least one COPFFN site visit to a partner campus, attendance and presentation at the annual Colorado PFFN Forum, meetings, and an off-campus faculty mentorship project.

I agree to provide the GTP/COPFFN at CU-Boulder with a current copy of my CV and transcript and I give permission to the GTP/COPFFN to communicate with appropriate faculty as needed in order to obtain a mentorship. My file will otherwise remain confidential.

At the beginning of my mentorship I will submit a written plan for my digital media-based classroom project agreed upon by myself and my faculty mentors. At the end of my mentorship I will write a detailed evaluative summary, and a Socratic Portfolio, and submit it to the GTP/COPFFN.

I will present the results of my work in progress in a web-based presentation at the next COPFFN Forum on March 3 and at the Provost's Fellows Showcase at the end of the Spring 2007 semester. I will also complete the online Provost's Fellow Pre-Survey and the Exit Survey, with the understanding that my confidentiality will be protected with respect to any data reported. If further assessment of the program is carried out, I will respond as required.

I understand that my status and financial support as a Provost's Fellow for Technology is contingent upon my active participation and that the Graduate Teacher Program/COPFFN reserves the right to cancel my status and financial support as appropriate if I do not fulfill the obligations noted above.
