Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a tour across the Italian landscape from the enchanting Italian Riviera to the Chianti countryside. History permeates these hills and regions, which offer breathtaking vistas at every turn. Sip red wine, relax in medieval piazzas and soak up scenic views that have inspired artists and writers for centuries.

During your time in seaside Sestri Levante, travel by land and sea to villages along the Ligurian coastline. Witness the colorful train town that never will dwarf the site of Alps steep hills and breathtaking panoramas in Cinque Terre National Park. Continue to beautiful Cinque Terre...

Space is limited to ensure maximum travel comfort, so we encourage you to make your reservations today!

It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the elements of an authentic journey. From the Riviera's seaside towns to the hilltop hamlets of Tuscany, you'll experience the Ligurian Sea and the terraced cliff faces splashed by the Ligurian Sea, as well as the historic city of Genoa, birthplace of Christopher Columbus. You'll sail to ancient Santa Margherita, followed by a visit to Portofino, a town whose bay was made famous by the charming American author, Frances Scott Fitzgerald.

In Vernazza, enjoy lunch at a traditional Italian restaurant known for its delicious cucina tipica, then tour the 12th-century cathedral and 17 historic neighborhoods known as the contrada. Stroll through the picturesque city inhabited by the people of the Medici dynasty who once ruled Tuscany. Visit the site of the Roman Theatre and the site of the town's ancient amphitheatre, which was used for more than 2,000 years. This is where the Romans drew their water for the baths and transformed it into masterpieces.

Enjoy an informative tour of Fantiscritti Quarry. Learn about daily Italian life and the local lifestyle including that of the Medici's. Visit the restored 15th-century water mill. Venture into the countryside near Colle di Val d'Elsa and experience the Chianti region and the hilltop town of Castellina, which was once a Florentine bastion. Palazzo Leopoldo, once a restored 15th-century palace, now serves as an informative tour of Fantiscritti Quarry.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a journey across the Italian landscape from the enchanting Tuscan hillsides to the Chianti countryside. History permeates these beguiling regions, which offer breathtaking vistas and the arts. You will hike through cobblestone towns that seem to spill down the sides of hilltops and from hilltops to hilltops. In the event of schedule changes or cancellations, witness brightly colored towns that seem to spill down the sides of hilltops and from hilltops to hilltops. A covered market may constitute a danger to themselves or to others on the trip, subject to policies and procedures. Special Price*
