Boulder Faculty Assembly
Student Affairs Committee
Resolution: Honor Code

BFA-R-6-1100

Whereas, honesty and integrity are essential for the achievement of academic excellence, and

Whereas,
  national research has demonstrated that the institution of an Honor Code significantly reduces lying, cheating, and stealing on university campuses, and

Whereas,
  the Laws of the Regents give the faculty principal responsibility for developing policy in the area of academic ethics.

Be it Resolved:

that the Boulder Faculty Assembly supports the development of an Honor Code for the University of Colorado at Boulder and intends to have full faculty participation in the writing of the Code and the articulation of its specific policies.

Resolution presented to the BFA Executive Committee: October 30, 2000
