Whereas there has been a significant recent decline in enrollment in Humanities courses; and

Whereas there has been a notable reduction in the number of students in Humanities majors; therefore

The Boulder Faculty Assembly will form a special committee to study the current state of teaching undergraduates the Arts and Humanities on the CU-Boulder campus. The committee will research and report to the BFA on the following:

- Precise information about CU-Boulder Humanities’ enrollment patterns;
- Comparison of these patterns with those of peer institutions;
- Comments and opinions of Humanities’ faculty about instruction and enrollments;
- Comments and opinions of students;
- Review the Humanities profile as part of the CU-Boulder image; and
- Make suggestions for reforms, changes, initiatives, etc.

Notice of Motion to the BFA Executive Committee: December 1, 2014
Approval by the BFA Executive Committee for forwarding to the BFA: December 1, 2014
Approved by the BFA: December 4, 2014