Love Song

By Morris White Plume and Kerry Shotgun recorded by Willard Rhodes, July 13, 1951:

nííwohóenései ceitoxóu’éeisee hee3e’eéseenoo

Flag Club woman, walk over here with a smile, to where I’m going.

Word-by-Word translation

niiwohoe-nesei ceit-oxou’-eisee hee3e’-eisee-noo flag-woman to here-smile-walk direction-walk-I

Note: The Flag Club was a woman’s “auxiliary” club, formed to support veterans and veterans’ organizations. Being a member of such organizations required invitation from the existing members, so this was a prestigious position. The woman being pursued in the song is therefore a “desirable catch.”
