JOSEPH W. ANGELL, JR.
Chief, USAF Historical Division Liaison Office, Headquarters USAF, Washington, D.C., was awarded the Exceptional Civilian Service Medal, the highest performance recognition of the Air Force's Office of the Secretary of Defense, for his "outstanding contributions to the Air Force accords. In addition to other responsibilities, he was the Air Force's chief liaison officer, with the Defense Department, with the State Department, with the National Security Council, with NATO, and with many other national and international agencies. He has served in various capacities on the staffs of the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of State, and has represented the Air Force at numerous international meetings and conferences.

DAVIS B. BOBROW
Director of the Division of the Oakland National Laboratory; and Professor of Psychology, University of California, Berkeley. He has been a member of the faculty at the University of California, Berkeley, since 1954, and has served as chairman of the Department of Psychology. He is a member of the American Psychological Association; the Society for Research in Child Development; the Society for Research in Educational Communications and Technology; and the National Academy of Sciences. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association.

ANIMA BOSE
A historian on the faculty of the University of Calcutta. Mrs. Bose received her M.A. degree in History from the University of Calcutta in 1950 and her Ph.D. degree in History from the University of Michigan in 1959. She is currently a member of the editorial board of the Indian Historical Journal and has published numerous articles, many of which deal with the history of India and the Indian subcontinent.

MAJOR GEORGE H. BUNTING
Director of the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Institute of Military Operations, and the Academy of Military Sciences. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association; the Society for Research in Child Development; the Society for Research in Educational Communications and Technology; and the National Academy of Sciences. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association.

MARGARET M. D. CLARKE
Recipient of the Award of Merit of the American Psychological Association; he has contributed research, writing, and teaching to the field of psychology. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association; the Society for Research in Child Development; the Society for Research in Educational Communications and Technology; and the National Academy of Sciences. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association.

CHARLES BUTCHER
President of The Butler Polish Co., Maiden, Mass., which he joined in 1920 and has served in various capacities, including president and chairman of the board. He has also been a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association; the Society for Research in Child Development; the Society for Research in Educational Communications and Technology; and the National Academy of Sciences. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association.

HARRY BLUM
A Research Physicist at the Data Sciences Laboratory (CRB) of the Air Force Cambridge Research Laboratories in Bedford, Massachusetts. He holds degrees from Cornell and Harvard universities.

MATT H. CLARKE
Who is now Director, Project Spinoff, Reed College, Portland, Ore., is a native of Kansas City, Missouri who holds a B.S. degree in physics from the University of California, Berkeley. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association; the Society for Research in Child Development; the Society for Research in Educational Communications and Technology; and the National Academy of Sciences. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the American Psychological Association.
ERIKA B. DURKIN

was appointed to the Permanent Staff of the U.S. Disarmament Administration, and for four years he was in industry working on various problems connected with electronic measuring devices for heavy industry. During World War II, he worked on underwater research projects for the Office of Scientific Research and Development at Washington for Peace in Vietnam on that day. He has contributed to the BULLE- TIN OF THE AMERICAN PHYSICAL SOCIETY, SATURDAY REVIEW, THE REPORTER, THE WASHINGTON POST, THE WASHINGTON STAR, THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, and the NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL.

LESLEI CLAUDE GREEN

is a native of London, graduated from the University of London (LL.B., First Class Honors, 1954) and from New York University School of Law (LL.M., 1959) in International Law. He has practiced law in the field and has been in active in all professional organizations in which he has been a member. In January, he was a member of the executive committee of the Jewish Welfare Board. Additionally, he is active in local civic affairs, and currently holds the position of President of the New York City Bar Association. He is also a member of the American Marketing Association and a member of the International Political Science Association. He is the author of a number of new, FATHERS, to be published next fall.

MAXWELL H. GOLDBERG

is Currently Associate Dean for continuing educa- tion at the University of Pennsylvania. A graduate of a humanistic project on technological change at the University of Pittsburgh, he received his degree in English and Art at the University of Pittsburgh, and at the National Institute of Art and Letters. As a member of six novels, BIRTH OF A HERO (1951), THE PROSPER BEFORE US (1954), THE MAN WHO HAS NOT WITH IT (1956), BLOOD ON THE MOON (1957), and Pocket Books, and TERROR ANGE OF THE VALLEY, and TERROR OF THE VALLEY, he is also the author of a number of essays, including "THE AGE OF HAPPY PROBLEMS" and "THE AGE OF TERROR," a professor at Harvard and at the University of Pennsylvania, and an American delegate to the Formentor Confer- ence. In 1951, he was given a Ford Foundation fellowship as a journalist on the JOURNAL OF AMERICAN HISTORY, and as the young President's Organization editor in charge of the Small Town and Country Planning Corporation.

GEOFFREY GOSSE

is a native of Dartford, England. He was educated at Eton College and the London School of Economics, receiving his B.A. in 1940 and his Ph.D. in 1942. He has been a member of the British Communist Party since 1941, and is a member of the Institute of Economic Affairs. He is also the author of "The Road to Peace," a novel, and "New Pathways in Peace," a new novel. He is married to Elizabeth Gossage, and they have two sons.

EDWARD JERGUTZ

is a native of New York City, received his B.S. degree in Physics in 1937 from the City College of New York and his Ph.D. also in Physics, from the University of California at Berkeley in 1944. He has served in the United States Army during World War II, where he was the subject of a special report by the Department of Labor. In 1947, he was appointed to the Permanent Staff of the U.S. Disarmament Administration, and for four years he was in industry working on various problems connected with electronic measuring devices for heavy industry. During World War II, he worked on underwater research projects for the Office of Scientific Research and Development at Washington for Peace in Vietnam on that day. He has contributed to the BULLE- TIN OF THE AMERICAN PHYSICAL SOCIETY, SATURDAY REVIEW, THE REPORTER, THE WASHINGTON POST, THE WASHINGTON STAR, THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, and the NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL.

LESLIE CLAUDE GREEN

is a native of London, graduated from the University of London (LL.B., First Class Honors, 1954) and from New York University School of Law (LL.M., 1959) in International Law. He has practiced law in the field and has been in active in all professional organizations in which he has been a member. In January, he was a member of the executive committee of the Jewish Welfare Board. Additionally, he is active in local civic affairs, and currently holds the position of President of the New York City Bar Association. He is also a member of the American Marketing Association and a member of the International Political Science Association. He is the author of a number of new, FATHERS, to be published next fall.

MAXWELL H. GOLDBERG

is Currently Associate Dean for continuing educa- tion at the University of Pennsylvania. A graduate of a humanistic project on technological change at the University of Pittsburgh, he received his degree in English and Art at the University of Pittsburgh, and at the National Institute of Art and Letters. As a member of six novels, BIRTH OF A HERO (1951), THE PROSPER BEFORE US (1954), THE MAN WHO HAS NOT WITH IT (1956), BLOOD ON THE MOON (1957), and Pocket Books, and TERROR ANGE OF THE VALLEY, and TERROR OF THE VALLEY, he is also the author of a number of essays, including "THE AGE OF HAPPY PROBLEMS" and "THE AGE OF TERROR," a professor at Harvard and at the University of Pennsylvania, and an American delegate to the Formentor Confer- ence. In 1951, he was given a Ford Foundation fellowship as a journalist on the JOURNAL OF AMERICAN HISTORY, and as the young President's Organization editor in charge of the Small Town and Country Planning Corporation.

GEOFFREY GOSSE

is a native of Dartford, England. He was educated at Eton College and the London School of Economics, receiving his B.A. in 1940 and his Ph.D. in 1942. He has been a member of the British Communist Party since 1941, and is a member of the Institute of Economic Affairs. He is also the author of "The Road to Peace," a novel, and "New Pathways in Peace," a new novel. He is married to Elizabeth Gossage, and they have two sons.

EDWARD JERGUTZ

is a native of New York City, received his B.S. degree in Physics in 1937 from the City College of New York and his Ph.D. also in Physics, from the University of California at Berkeley in 1944. He has served in the United States Army during World War II, where he was the subject of a special report by the Department of Labor. In 1947, he was appointed to the Permanent Staff of the U.S. Disarmament Administration, and for four years he was in industry working on various problems connected with electronic measuring devices for heavy industry. During World War II, he worked on underwater research projects for the Office of Scientific Research and Development at Washington for Peace in Vietnam on that day. He has contributed to the BULLE- TIN OF THE AMERICAN PHYSICAL SOCIETY, SATURDAY REVIEW, THE REPORTER, THE WASHINGTON POST, THE WASHINGTON STAR, THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, and the NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL.
CARYN F. MESSIER

A specialist in planning and programming, Department of Social Affairs of the Pan American Union, 1962, and is a member of the Connecticut, Oxford, Indiana University and Freie University, Berlin. He retired as Deputy Commander in Chief of the Air War College, where he served until 1964. Mr. Rumph is a member of the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford during the first years of its existence, and then in 1955 joined the faculty of the University of Michigan. He is a native of New York who received his B.A. (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1941), THE GUARDIAN as a correspondent in Germany, and then studied music in Chicago and New York. He attended the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1926. After his retirement, General Rumph lectured on management of research and development at the University of Michigan. He received his B.A. from the College of the City in New York in 1949. In recent years his interests have shifted from management to the history of science and technology. He has lectured on various topics concerning the history and development of the aeronautical sciences center, a gymnasium, several academic buildings, four student dormitories, an engineering school, and a library. In 1961, Mr. Rumph was appointed to the position he held for three years before joining THE LONDON TIMES in 1951 as editor of the newspaper. In 1954 he moved to Geneva, Switzerland, as a correspondent in France (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1944), THE SOCIOLGY OF FILM, and BRT: ISLAMIC AND ARABIC RELIGION.

PETER MICHAEL MAYER

Editor, Avon Book Division, Harcourt Corporation, N.Y., was born in London in 1935. He was educated at the University of Oxford, Oxford, and the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. In 1963 he received his B.A. (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1941), THE GUARDIAN as a correspondent in Germany, and then studied music in Chicago and New York. He attended the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1926. After his retirement, General Rumph lectured on management of research and development at the University of Michigan. He received his B.A. from the College of the City in New York in 1949. In recent years his interests have shifted from management to the history of science and technology. He has lectured on various topics concerning the history and development of the aeronautical sciences center, a gymnasium, several academic buildings, four student dormitories, an engineering school, and a library. In 1961, Mr. Rumph was appointed to the position he held for three years before joining THE LONDON TIMES in 1951 as editor of the newspaper. In 1954 he moved to Geneva, Switzerland, as a correspondent in France (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1944), THE SOCIOLGY OF FILM, and BRT: ISLAMIC AND ARABIC RELIGION.

PETER MICHAEL MAYER

Editor, Avon Book Division, Harcourt Corporation, N.Y., was born in London in 1935. He was educated at the University of Oxford, Oxford, and the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. In 1963 he received his B.A. (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1941), THE GUARDIAN as a correspondent in Germany, and then studied music in Chicago and New York. He attended the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1926. After his retirement, General Rumph lectured on management of research and development at the University of Michigan. He received his B.A. from the College of the City in New York in 1949. In recent years his interests have shifted from management to the history of science and technology. He has lectured on various topics concerning the history and development of the aeronautical sciences center, a gymnasium, several academic buildings, four student dormitories, an engineering school, and a library. In 1961, Mr. Rumph was appointed to the position he held for three years before joining THE LONDON TIMES in 1951 as editor of the newspaper. In 1954 he moved to Geneva, Switzerland, as a correspondent in France (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1944), THE SOCIOLGY OF FILM, and BRT: ISLAMIC AND ARABIC RELIGION.

PETER MICHAEL MAYER

Editor, Avon Book Division, Harcourt Corporation, N.Y., was born in London in 1935. He was educated at the University of Oxford, Oxford, and the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. In 1963 he received his B.A. (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1941), THE GUARDIAN as a correspondent in Germany, and then studied music in Chicago and New York. He attended the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1926. After his retirement, General Rumph lectured on management of research and development at the University of Michigan. He received his B.A. from the College of the City in New York in 1949. In recent years his interests have shifted from management to the history of science and technology. He has lectured on various topics concerning the history and development of the aeronautical sciences center, a gymnasium, several academic buildings, four student dormitories, an engineering school, and a library. In 1961, Mr. Rumph was appointed to the position he held for three years before joining THE LONDON TIMES in 1951 as editor of the newspaper. In 1954 he moved to Geneva, Switzerland, as a correspondent in France (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1944), THE SOCIOLGY OF FILM, and BRT: ISLAMIC AND ARABIC RELIGION.

DAVID E. McGiffert

Who was sworn in as Under Secretary of the Air Force on May 25, 1939, he attended the University of California, Los Angeles, and the University of Arizona. In 1939 he was appointed to the position he held for three years before joining THE LONDON TIMES in 1951 as editor of the newspaper. In 1954 he moved to Geneva, Switzerland, as a correspondent in France (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1944), THE SOCIOLGY OF FILM, and BRT: ISLAMIC AND ARABIC RELIGION.

PETER MICHAEL MAYER

Editor, Avon Book Division, Harcourt Corporation, N.Y., was born in London in 1935. He was educated at the University of Oxford, Oxford, and the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. In 1963 he received his B.A. (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1941), THE GUARDIAN as a correspondent in Germany, and then studied music in Chicago and New York. He attended the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1926. After his retirement, General Rumph lectured on management of research and development at the University of Michigan. He received his B.A. from the College of the City in New York in 1949. In recent years his interests have shifted from management to the history of science and technology. He has lectured on various topics concerning the history and development of the aeronautical sciences center, a gymnasium, several academic buildings, four student dormitories, an engineering school, and a library. In 1961, Mr. Rumph was appointed to the position he held for three years before joining THE LONDON TIMES in 1951 as editor of the newspaper. In 1954 he moved to Geneva, Switzerland, as a correspondent in France (1939), POLITICAL THOUGHT IN FRANCE (1944), THE SOCIOLGY OF FILM, and BRT: ISLAMIC AND ARABIC RELIGION.
A native of Berlin, he has been in the German Foreign Service since 1950. Mr. Schulyer has served in the German Embassy from 1959-1962, and is currently serving as First Secretary of the German Embassy in Washington. Dr. Sterling is a member of the American Psychoanalytic Association, the American Psychological Association, and the Diplomate Member in Psychotherapy and Neurology of the Pan American Medical Association.

PHILIP M. STERN
Author of the best-selling book on tax loop- holes, THE THREAT OF A NATION, a photographic essay of the American Scene, and the Beta Kappa Harvard graduate with varied ex­ perience in journalism, government and politics. After a year as reporter and editor he was selected for a Ford Foundation fellowship brought him to Washington where he served as legislative assistant to Con­ gressman Orendorff and Senator Paul H. Douglas. In 1952 he was appointed Executive Director of Research for the Democratic National Commit­ tee. He founded a daily newspaper, the NORTH­ERN, in 1953 and was its editor and later as publisher. Mr. Stern became a columnist for the WAYNE MAGAZINE, THE REPORTER, THE NEW RE­ public, and the ST. LOUIS POST-Dispatch. He wrote to the GREAT TREASURY RAID. He has written with his wife, OH SAY CAN YOU SEE, BIOFICIAL VIEW OF WASHINGTON.

HAROLD TAYLOR
First came to national prominence in 1945 when he was a member of the philosophy department of the University of Washington; in 1950 he joined the philosophy department of Sarah Lawrence College, a position he occupied for the next 14 years. During that time he organized an international seminar and challenging educators in America through his writings, radio broadcasts, and television appearances on social and educa­ tional issues, and the development of experi­ mental programs in education for which Sarah Lawrence is famous. He has written more than 300 articles in books and jour­ nals and has contributed to books: EDUCATION AND FREEDOM: ART AND THE INTELLECT, and ESSAYS IN BEGINNINGS. In June 1964 Taylor was awarded an honorary degree from Sarah Lawrence College, and his one-act play, "Fleas and Flies" was produced at the Shakespeare Theatre, London. His next play is currently a director of the Theatre, and is working on his next play, "JET PACK". In addition to his writing and research, he has lectured at Oxford and London University. He has also been active in the development of the ECONOMICS and EDUCATION. The United Nations, the International Barometer of Israel has also honored him with the title of the JOURNAL OF PSYCHOLOGICAL TRENDS. TOWER BAROMETER MAN (to appear in Fall, 1965). WAYNE H. WAINRIGHT
Who was educated at Purdue, Cornell, the University of Chicago, and the University of Virginia, Mr. Wainwright was a member of the Department of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania, and is currently serving as a principal at the University of Pennsylvania, and is currently serving as a principal at the University of Pennsylvania.

HAROLD TAYLOR
First came to national prominence in 1945 when he was a member of the philosophy department of the University of Washington; in 1950 he joined the philosophy department of Sarah Lawrence College, a position he occupied for the next 14 years. During that time he organized an international seminar and challenging educators in America through his writings, radio broadcasts, and television appearances on social and educa­ tional issues, and the development of experi­ mental programs in education for which Sarah Lawrence is famous. He has written more than 300 articles in books and jour­ nals and has contributed to books: EDUCATION AND FREEDOM: ART AND THE INTELLECT, and ESSAYS IN BEGINNINGS. In June 1964 Taylor was awarded an honorary degree from Sarah Lawrence College, and his one-act play, "Fleas and Flies" was produced at the Shakespeare Theatre, London. His next play is currently a director of the Theatre, and is working on his next play, "JET PACK". In addition to his writing and research, he has lectured at Oxford and London University. He has also been active in the development of the ECONOMICS and EDUCATION. The United Nations, the International Barometer of Israel has also honored him with the title of the JOURNAL OF PSYCHOLOGICAL TRENDS. TOWER BAROMETER MAN (to appear in Fall, 1965).

LEONARD B. TENNSY
A native of New York City, who was graduated from City College and the University of Wisconsin, Mr. Tenney is a native of New York City. He has been with the United Press and the Chicago Defender, and is a member of the Newspaper Guild of Washington, D.C. He has written articles on a variety of political topics and has contributed to the Washington Post and the New York Times. In 1964 he was elected president of the Midwest Press Club, and is currently serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the American Newspaper Guild. In 1965 he was a member of the Board of Directors of the National Newspaper Guild. He is a member of the National Association of Intergroup Relations.

BERNDT VON STADEN
A native of Germany, Mr. Stadler, who was educated at the Universities of Bonn and Hamburg, is a member of the German Foreign Service, and became Sec­ ond Secretary of the German Embassy in Brussels (1953-55). From 1955-1958 he was First Secretary of the Foreign Ministry at the East German Embassy in Washington, and then for the next five years served as an assistant professor at the Technical University of Berlin, where he is now a member of the German Embassy in Washington, D.C.

HARRY STERLING, M.D.
Is a graduate of Washington University, who received his A.B. degree in 1944 from the University of Wisconsin, and his M.D. degree in 1948 from the University of Illinois College of Medicine. At present, in addition to having a private psychosomatic practice, he is Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Director of the Mental Health Center of New York, President of the American Psychoanalytic Association, and a Diplomat Member in Psychi­ atrics and Neurology of the Pan American Medical Association.

RICHARD C. TRELIX
A member of the Department of History at Texas Western College, is a native of Philade­ lphia, and has been associated with the University of Illinois in Chicago and New York, where he studied under Dr. S. Trelrix, a noted psychoanalyst. During the Middle Ages, he received his Doctorate degree in Paris, and has since lived in Paris for over 20 years. He is a member of the French Psychoanalytic Association, and of the American Psychoanalytic Association, and has served as president of the American Psychoanalytic Association.

PRESTON TUTTLE
Born in 1941 in Wooster, Ohio, is an instructor in English and Speech at the University of Illinois in Urbana. He is editor of the American Psychoanalytic Association, and holds a Ph.D. in Psychoanalysis and Child-alcohol EXPERIENCE, which concerns the relations between emotional content and dramatic form.

BRIAN EDWARD URRIGHT
Was educated at Westminster and Chirst College, Cambridge. In 1952 he served in the British Army in India and Parachute forces. After service in H.M. forces, he was at the University of Edinburgh and the American Psychoanalytic Association, and is a Diplomate in Psychotherapy and Neurology of the Pan American Medical Association.

KENNETH BERTRAM ADAM SCOTT
Was born on May 13, 1931. He was educated at George Watson's College, Edinburgh, and at the University of Edinburgh. From 1952-1954 he served in the German Navy from 1939-1942, and is currently serving as a Diplomate in Psychotherapy and Neurology of the Pan American Medical Association.

HARTMUT SCHULZE-BOYSEN
Was born in Bonn, Germany, on November 1, 1931. He was educated at George Watson's College, Edinburgh, and at the University of Edinburgh. From 1952-1954 he served in the German Navy from 1939-1942; and from 1958-1960 he was Consul in Washington, D.C. He has been awarded a Ph.D. in Psychoanalysis and Child-alcohol EXPERIENCE, which concerns the relations between emotional content and dramatic form.