NANCY ABRAMS

Nancy Abrams is associated with the Office of Technical Assessment of the U.S. Congress. She received her B.A. from the University of Chicago in 1969 in History and Philosophy of Science, and her J.D. cum laude from the University of Michigan in 1973. She was a Fulbright Fellow in Italy in 1974-75, when she served as a research assistant in international environmental law to the International Judicial Organization in Rome. She has been a professional consultant to the Ford Foundation, has served as clerk to the New Jersey Superior Court, and was a visiting lecturer at the National University of Mexico. Her interests include science and law, public participation in science and technology, ethics in science, long-range implications of the women's movement, and international environmental concerns.

JOSEPH ACANFORA

In 1972 Joseph Acanfora was offered and accepted a teaching job in the Rockville, Maryland, public schools. When school officials learned, through newspaper reports, that Acanfora was homosexual, he was transferred out of the classroom and into the curriculum department because “that does not require contact with youngsters.” His teaching contract was subsequently not renewed. A lawsuit resulted and after two years reached the U.S. Supreme Court. The Justices refused to hear the case, upholding the lower courts’ decisions. Excluded from a public teaching career, Mr. Acanfora is now employed by the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities in Washington, D.C. Both WNET and CBS’s “60 Minutes” have done programs on Mr. Acanfora’s case, and he is a frequent lecturer on gay problems.

IQBAL KHUND

His Excellency, Iqbal Khund, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, is the Permanent Representative of Pakistan to the United Nations.

AMBASSADOR AKHUND

Ambassador Akhund is a career diplomat who joined the Pakistan Foreign Service in 1949 and has served in diplomatic posts in Europe, Africa, Asia, and the United Nations in New York. He has served as Pakistan's delegation to the Security Council, as President of the Economic and Social Council for the year of 1975, as Chairman of the United Nations Committee on Sanctions against Rhodesia, and as President of the Security Council for October, 1976. He is a member of the International Committee of the Institute on Men and Science.

FAROK AKHDAR

Dr. Farouk Akhdar is Secretary-General of the Royal Industrial Commission for Jubail and Yanbu Development of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. He took a B.A. in economics from Riyadh University, an M.A. from Western Michigan University, and a Ph.D. in economics from the University of California. His fields of specialization are money, banking, and petroleum economics. He has previously served as Chief of the Office of Technical Affairs of the Ministry of Planning, as an Economic Analyst for the Ministry of Finance and National Economy, and has been a lecturer in economics at the University of Petroleum and Minerals, all in Saudi Arabia.

SAEED AL SHAMS

Saied Al Shamsi currently holds the position of Charge d’Affaires, Ad Interim for the Embassy of the United Arab Emirates in Washington, D.C. Educated at Arizona State University and the School of Advanced International Studies at Johns Hopkins University, he joined the foreign ministry of the United Arab Emirates in 1974. He attended the OAPFC countries Oil Ministers Conference in Algeria in 1975 and has participated in a large number of other conferences, including the International Women's Year Conference - Mexico City in 1975.

JACK ANDERSON

Jack Anderson, who has three children residing in Boulder at this time, was born in Long Beach, California, on October 19, 1922, but almost immediately his parents moved to Salt Lake City, where he grew up. He began his newspaper career at the age of twelve, writing a column on the Boy Scouts for a suburban newspaper. He attended the University of Utah, but before graduating he was sidetracked into the editorship of a Salt Lake City newspaper at the age of eighteen. He did mission work for the Mormon Church, then served as a war correspondent in China for the Stars and Stripes. In 1945, Mr. Anderson entered the Washington, D.C., scene working with Drew Pearson, a position he held until Mr. Pearson's death in 1968. He received a Pulitzer Prize in 1972 and is currently a very well-known columnist and news commentator.

KATHRYN ARMSTRONG

Painting with dyes, batik-making, and Raku sculpture are only a few of Kathryn Armstrong's talents. In addition to her artistic achievements, she has done much to expand the role of art and artists in the life of the community. As professor of art at Sonoma State College, she not only teaches sculpture and painting and practices her own art, but she shares her expertise with the elderly, delinquent boys and girls, and the handicapped. She has traveled extensively in the South Pacific, Southeast Asia, and Japan; she has studied primitive ceramic firing methods in Fiji, lived with stone carvers in Bali, observed craft co-ops in Malaysia, worked with potters in Japan, and acquired a unique knowledge of the role of women in the arts of these faraway places. Since her first accomplishments at the University of Colorado, Kathryn Armstrong has indeed gone somewhere.

MUSTAFA O. ATTIR

Mustafa Attir is a professor of sociology at the University of Tropoli. He has published articles in English and Arabic on cheating in the classroom, alcoholism, and sexual crimes. Professor Attir was born in Libya and educated at the Universities of Libya, Pittsburgh, and Minnesota. In addition to his research and teaching interests, in criminology and delinquency, Professor Attir has served on numerous commissions and delegations, including a symposium on "The Brain Drain Problem and How to Bring Back Arab Experts Who Live in the West" held in Washington, D.C., in 1974.

NANCY BALFOUR

Nancy Balfour was born in San Francisco but was educated in England and in 1965 was honored by that country by being made a member of the Order of the British Empire. During World War II, she was a member of the British Foreign Office Research Department, and immediately following the war, she was employed for a few years by the North American Service of the BBC. For twenty-four years, Nancy Balfour was on the staff of the American Department of London's The Economist Newspaper, from 1954 to 1972 as assistant editor. Since 1964 she has served as a member of the Royal Institute of International Affairs, and from 1973 to 1974 she was a fellow of the Institute of Politics, J.F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University. In addition to her professional involvement in international affairs, Nancy Balfour has been active and influential in the support of the arts in Great Britain. At present she is a member of Great Britain's Visual Art Panel of the Arts Council and the chairman of the Contemporary Art Society of London.
ALBERT D. BIDERMAN should delineate from isolated and unaffiliated deplorables. If 3rd the current concerns of Albert Biderman, sociologist. Research used in Science Research. Biderman has written widely on issues ranging from victimization to work quality to overcrowding. He was educated at Princeton University and the University of Chicago and worked in the Peace Corps and the Human Ecology Fund before coming to the Bureau of Social Science Research, where he is currently a consultant to the Bureau of the Census and a lecturer in the fourth semester of the National Policy Toward Gambling, and he is actively concerned with economic policies and problems.

AORIE K. BLUMBERG
Morrie Blumberg was born in Chicago in 1940 and received his B.A. in Sociology from the University of Chicago and earned his master’s degree from the School of Social Work at Columbia University. He has had total of thirteen years of training and has been with the United States Agency for International Development since 1975. He is currently working on projects in Sub-Saharan Africa and has lived in Namibia, and Ghana! At present he is a visiting scholar in public affairs at the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York at the Graduate School of Social Work.

BILLY BOCK
Philip Bock was recently married and has moved to the department of Anthropology at the university of New Mexico. He has one wonderful son and lives with his wife, Cathy, and Mexican peasants, and his major urban interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care,
and Mexican peasants, and his major
interests include linguistics and sociolinguistics. His sociological
work has focused on the impact of technology, quality of care, work with the Nigerian Relief and Rehabilitation Operations and the Rehabilitation Operations. Mr. Frederick is currently acting coordinator of Women in Korea. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota-U.S. delegate to the OAS Commission on the Status of Women. He is also a delegate to the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women.

R. BUCKMINTER FULLER
Richard Buckminster Fuller says, "We can seat a human on a very small foot and have him eat with his fingers, learn to talk, and dance with Martha Graham and still have sufficient time to file a claim for the sustained rate to provide all humanity and all their generations to come with higher standard of living and greater freedoms for than ever have been experienced since time began."

CHAD GORDON
Chad Gordon is a sociologist interested in leisure, sexuality, and moral development. Chad taught sociology at Hollywood High and UCLA. Professor Gordon teaches sociology at Rice University in Houston. He has been involved in research on Model United Nations and on the role of scale social systems, personal values, political development, and influence and decision-making processes, and has published articles on the subject.

BOB GREENE
Bob Greene's daily Chicago Sun Times column about people, places, or events is now syndicated in over a thousand newspapers worldwide. A collection of these short features was recently published in A Day in the Life. Reporting, Mr. Greene's fourth book. Bob sits at your table in the morning and tells you about the amazing experiences on tour as a performing member of Alax Cooper's house band, was published in The Rolling Stone, and wrote Have None of Them Fat Funky's Angels on the Wall of Hotel and Hunted for the federal government. He has been a press agent for Avon Books. Since 1976, he has served as the Peace Corps Regional Director in East Malaysia. He is currently chairperson of the United States Peace Corps."
ROY E. MORSE

ROY E. Morse, who has a Ph.D. in food technology from Oregon State University, has spent ten years as a beverage expert, first as vice president in charge of research and development for the Pepsi-Cola Company. He has since become chairman of the board of the company.

The author of numerous scientific publications and holder of patents on the chemistry and engineering of foods, he has, more specifically, published on meat and fish, bakery products, fruit and vegetable juices, fruit and vegetable purees, fruit and vegetable products, and the food industry.

MELVIN K. NAJARAN

Melvin K. Najaran is interested in whether and how national security affects the regulation of 270 different federal agencies. He has been chairman of the board of the National Council for Private Corona, a private corporation and labor union.

In his role as partner in the law firm of Hus and Najaran in San Francisco, Najaran has been involved in developing regulatory systems for white-collar crimes and eroding the control of the federal government over the law. With a background in economics and law, Najaran has also taught labor and business law and serves as executive officer in the Peace Corps and executive assistant to the director of ACTION.

ADELE MARIE NAUDE

Adèle Naude is an architect, urban designer, and city planner, who teaches architecture at Rice University and is professor of architecture at the Catholic University of the Andrea de Souza Santos. She is a British subject, born in Cape Town, South Africa, and educated at the University of Cape Town, where she received her B.A. in philosophy and history. She is Princeton's official tiger and with her roommate runs a pizza delivery service.

WILLIAM SIMON

William Simon is currently director of the Institute for Urban Studies at the University of Pennsylvania, where he is associate director of the Urban Research Project. Before becoming a Texan, he was program supervisor for sociology and anthropology at the University of Arizona. In 1972, he was appointed to professor of social research at the University of Texas and the University of Wisconsin, from which he received a Ph.D. in political science.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN RICHARD

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.

SHELLEY VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Mrs. Vaughan Williams has a home on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and also a home in Israel, helped plan the Faberge exhibit for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee, and was a member of the board of directors of Magna Carta, which dramatizes the history of the British Constitution. She advises governments in the Middle East, banking interests in the Netherlands, and the Jewish community of London. She has a wide understanding of economic problems of the United Kingdom and Europe and an interest in the arts, in individualism, and in quality.

BEN VAN MEERENDONK

Born in Amsterdam in 1941, Ben Van Meerendonk is a member of the Netherlands Broadcasting System Corporation. His most recent post is foreign correspondent for America. He not only covers the American scene for Netherlands Radio, but also covers the United States as a frequent contributor on American affairs to magazines and newspapers.