Travel Directions

The conference will be held at the Millennium Harvest House in Boulder CO. Boulder is a college town 25 miles northwest of Denver. There are several means of getting to Boulder from the Denver International Airport (DIA).

By Car:
If you rent a car at DIA, you can reach Boulder and the conference hotel in 45 minutes. There are two main ways to get to Boulder: either via Pena Blvd., I-70 and I-270 or via Pena Blvd. and I-470 (the toll road). Both of these routes eventually get you on the Boulder Turnpike (US-36 W). Once you get to Boulder, US-36 turns into 28th Street. The hotel will be on the left past Colorado Avenue, but before Arapahoe Avenue.

By Taxi:
Taxis are readily available at DIA. The cost nears $100.00 (without gratuity).

By Shuttle:
Boulder SuperShuttle runs a shuttle service between Denver International Airport and Boulder. A one way fare from DIA to the hotel is $27.00. SuperShuttle maintains a ticketing booth at DIA. For other questions and advanced planning, use the following contact information:

Web: Boulder SuperShuttle
Email: reservations@supershuttle.net
Phone: (800) BLUE-VAN [(800) 258-3826]

By RTD Bus:
Finally, it is possible to get to Boulder via the Regional Transportation District (RTD) bus. RTD maintains a ticketing booth at DIA. For other information, go to

Web: RTD
Phone: (303) 299-6000