Looking for Change

Summer Exhibition 2009

We are delighted to invite you to the opening of the Looking for Change Summer Exhibition celebrating the accomplishment of students participating in the programme.

Tate Modern
Clare Education Centre Gallery
Level 1
Saturday 27 June 2009 13:00 – 15:00
Free, All Welcome

Working closely with artists Roy Smith and Claire Smith both at school and in visits to the Tate Collection Displays, Looking for Change has helped students develop their visual literacy through the core creative skills of observation, reflection and discussion.

The Looking for Change exhibition is the culmination of two years' work by students from Brook Community School, Burbage Primary School and Vauxhall Primary School.

The students' work will be displayed in the Clare Education Centre Gallery, Level 1 Tate Modern, 28 June – 23 July 2009.

This three year initiative has been developed by Tate Modern and is supported by UBS. For further information please contact Selina Levinson on selina.levinson@tate.org.uk

To RSVP please contact Clare Walton on clare.walton@tate.org.uk
