Education Diversity Scholars Award Recipient Agreement to Participate

As a student in the EDS program and a recipient of an EDS Scholarship, I am expected to do the following:

1. I will take responsibility to attend a minimum of two meetings with the director of the Education Diversity Scholars Program to monitor my academic progress at the university.
2. I will schedule and meet with my School of Education, EDS Faculty mentor at least twice per year.
3. I will maintain a grade point average of 2.7 or above. If my g.p.a. falls below that mark I will make arrangements to improve my grades in the next term with the Director of EDS.
4. As a sign of my commitment to the program, I will enroll in Education 3013 or apply to the teacher's licensing program by the end of my sophomore year.
5. I will attend and participate in EDS presentations/activities. Those activities may be any of the following:
 - EDS educator presentations/seminars
 - Study sessions
 - Education Library Orientations
 - Teach and Lead Panels
 - Awards, scholarship, and recognition ceremonies
 - EDS social gatherings
 - School visits and field experiences
 - Resume writing workshop
 - Interviewing Skills workshop
 - Job Search Workshop

To meet the attendance requirement you may choose option "A" or "B."

Option A: I will attend at least four (4) EDS activities/presentations offered at various times throughout the school year.

Or

Option B: I will attend at least three EDS activities/presentations offered at various times and one CU-Lead activity/presentation. I will attend one CU-Lead neighborhood activity/presentation to support the EDS relationship with other CU-Lead programs and to bridge and build relationships with other students of color and first generation students on campus.

In addition to doing everything listed as a member of the EDS program, I will need to do the following as an award recipient:

6. I will study in or otherwise use the EDS Study Center and office at least 1-2 times times a week.
7. I will be a member of one of the following leadership teams(which meet periodically):
 - a. The CU-Lead Student Advisory Board (student membership)
 - b. The EDS student Recruitment and Retention Advisory Board (student, faculty and community members)
 - c. The community based organization for recruitment and retention of students of color and first generation students.
 - d. Apply for position of EDS study center monitor
8. As I progress through the program, I will be expected to contribute to the general welfare of the program, and to assist others in their learning experiences as I strive for my own academic excellence.
9. I understand that if I do not fulfill the conditions for this agreement, EDS and I agree that I will lose my status in the program and I will not be considered for future EDS scholarships.
