

WISE Commits Funds for Four Faculty Proposals

Women Investing in the School of Education (WISE) selected four faculty proposals to fund for the upcoming year, said Margot Neufeld, Sr. Director of Development for the School of Education. The inaugural awards are:

Elizabeth Dutro/Ruben Donato—$5,000 for Recruiting and Supporting Students of Color and Researchers for the School of Education

Karen Germann—$4,795 for Interactive Learning Technology

Vicki Hand—$4,200 for Recruiting Students of Diverse Backgrounds into Teaching Math and Science

Jennie Whitcomb—$5,000 for Using the Quality Urban Classroom for Feedback in the Teacher Ed Program

Requests totaled $18,995, and since WISE had a limit of $18,000 to award, Dean Lorrie Shepard has agreed to fund the additional $995 so that the four projects can be fully funded.
