

Fire and Life-Safety Group (FLS)

Conditions for Allowing Furniture and Furnishings to be Moved into a New Building or Renovated Areas of an Existing Building

The conditions for moving furniture into a new building or renovated space are as follows:

1. Fire detection/alarm systems are to be complete and functional.
2. Fire sprinklers, standpipes are to be complete and functional.
3. Means of egress elements are to be complete and unobstructed.
Fire rated corridors, doors, and stairwells are to be complete and functional.
4. Elevator recall and shunt-trip systems are to be complete and functional.
5. Portable fire extinguishers are to be installed as required.