CU Population Center and the Institute for Behavioral Science are pleased to announce the Annual Jane Menken Distinguished Lecture

“Four Billion More People but Fewer Children: The Peculiar Demography of the 21st Century and its Economic Implications”

DR. DAVID LAM

Professor of Economics
Population Studies Center
University of Michigan

Monday, March 2
3:00 – 4:30pm
IBS Building - Room 155A