

ECONOMIC JUSTICE SUMMER

INVST 2017

detailed itinerary

July 17 & 18, departure from Boulder to Garden City, Kansas: learn how immigrant workers contribute to the agricultural sector and the meatpacking industry in the rural US. We will also hear the perspectives of conservative lawmakers.

July 19: travel to Chicago, Illinois to partner with the Mexico Solidarity Network. From July 19-25, learn about grassroots organizing on issues related to fair wages, access to affordable housing, healthcare and immigration reform.

July 26: depart for Detroit, Michigan, we will learn from the Boggs Center to Nurture Community Leadership (July 25-30) about education alternatives in a post-industrial city.

July 30-31: in Omaha, Nebraska, we will learn about Immigration and Customs Enforcement raids on meatpacking plants.

Aug 1-5, Denver, Colorado, the sanctuary movement to protect undocumented families from deportation, with Rocky Mountain Immigrant Advocacy Network, DeLaney Farm, Project Worthmore & others. The trip concludes with students meeting elected officials in the Colorado State Capitol.

program dates

- JULY 12,13,14: ORIENTATION @ CU BOULDER
- JULY 17 - AUG 5: INVST ECONOMIC JUSTICE SUMMER
- AUG 7 - 8: REFLECTION @ CU BOULDER