INTERDISCIPLINARY TELECOM PROGRAM

A bachelor’s degree from a four-year college or university of recognized standing

GRE, GMAT or LSAT scores for applicants whose native language is not English

An aptitude for working with technology, and strong written and oral English skills

Admission Requirements

Students engage in challenging courses in the Telecom Lab Facility that provide a comprehensive study, skill set, and real world exposure.