INFORMATION TO PERSON REQUESTED TO SUBMIT RECOMMENDATION:

The Admissions Committee is required to evaluate the credentials of an applicant on a comparative basis against the credentials of a large number of other applicants who appear to be highly qualified for law study and practice. To assist in this process, candidates for admission to the University of Colorado Law School are required to obtain at least one letter of evaluation from a former instructor or employment supervisor.

Appraisals are most helpful to the committee when they are frank and provide specific information concerning the applicant's intellectual and personal characteristics and performance that may relate to the applicant's suitability for the study and practice of law beyond information that is shown on the college transcripts and employment records. Comparison with other students will be helpful.

The Admissions Committee will treat your evaluation as confidential, to the extent permitted by law. However, unless the applicant has executed the waiver form and you return this form with your evaluation, the applicant may be entitled to review your evaluation.

Please return your evaluation to the applicant (if confidential, enclose in sealed envelope signed across the seal), or you may mail directly to the address below. We genuinely appreciate the time and effort you are giving to the evaluation of this applicant.
