Statement of Purpose and Editorial Policy

The Colorado Journal of International Environmental Law and Policy is an interdisciplinary journal dedicated to the examination of environmental issues with international implications. It provides a forum for: (1) in-depth analysis of the legal or public policy implications of problems related to the global environment; (2) articulation and examination of proposals and new ideas for the management and resolution of international environmental concerns; and (3) description of current developments and opinions related to international environmental law and policy.

The Journal has a diverse international audience including policy makers, scholars, and organizations concerned with environmental issues. Specific audiences include scholars and students at law schools, schools of international affairs, schools of public policy, programs of study involving the natural and social sciences, and officials in governmental and nongovernmental organizations.

The Journal is interested in articles submitted by authors that fall within this stated purpose. Authors uncertain whether their article is suitable for Journal publication are encouraged to contact the Editor-in-Chief to discuss the subject matter of their article.

Articles or other materials from authors may be accepted for publication prior to undergoing any editorial modifications. Such materials may also be conditionally accepted with the understanding that the author undertake major modifications prior to publication. Where appropriate, papers may be reviewed by experts within the relevant field to aid the Journal’s publication decisions and editing processes. Article Editors will work with authors to refine the written product throughout the publication process, with the overall objective being to enhance the effectiveness of written communication.

The Colorado Journal of International Environmental Law and Policy issue Vol. 23, No. 1 (2012) contained a substantive error in Free Market Environmentalism: Desalination as a Solution to Limited Water Resources in Northern Chile’s Mining Industry. At present, Chile has a Ministry of the Environment, which was created under Ley 20.417 and replaced Chile’s National Commission of the Environment (identified as “CONAMA” in the note).
