Library significant events

University of Colorado-Colorado Springs (Ron Koch): the dean search continues; a recommendation has been sent to the provost

Colorado College (McKinley Sielaff): Orders are in for the serial set back files (congressional record or hearings), they are going through a major remodeling project.

University of Denver (Chris Brown): the dean is retiring, Michael Levine Clark will be the interim dean. Public Printer Davita Vance Cook visited the library

Regis University (Dawn Combe): Regis will be celebrating their 100th anniversary as an FDL; there will be an event to coincide with Constitution Day. She invited all to attend and will pass along information to Peggy

University of Colorado-Boulder Law Library (Erik Beck): they would like to start looking at new digitization projects since the Session Laws will be completed soon. There is a good deal of construction going on in the library

Colorado State Publications (Debbi MacLeod and Samantha Hager): the new repository is moving right along; stay tuned for updates. There was some minor basement flooding after heavy rains in Denver. Samantha noted that COSPL needs State Document usage statistics by July 1.

University of Denver Law Library (Mark Popeilarski): the Dean of the Law School is stepping down, and the government documents inventory is complete

Colorado State University (Naomi Lederer): Naomi will be the new coordinator (Welcome!), CSU is going to be focusing on War department documents, particularly from WWII. They would also like to focus on D's.

University of Northern Colorado (Mark Anderson): They are going to begin working with Digital Commons and will soon begin hosting an Institutional Repository. He is weeding FD1, FS 3.4 and HE's. UNC might like to host a site visit

University of Colorado-Boulder (Peggy Jobe): CU is going through a lot of changes with the catalog, website, and guides (moving to summon, Drupal, and LibGuides)

Digitization Projects Discussion Part II (Erik Beck)

The Session Laws project is wrapping up and Erik would like to collaborate with someone on a digitization project that might fall within the scope of the FDLP's new FIPNet preservation initiative

CU law has the labor and they want to work on a project

CU Law could do the work while other libraries provide the material…he might also ask for help with a grant proposal

CU mentioned wanting to digitize EIS draft reports…they are fugitive documents that are removed from the Federal Register and are difficult to find afterwards. Erik and Peggy will stay in touch. Any recommendations can go to Erik. The next GoPIG meeting will talk more about EIS's
