

University of Colorado
Department of Mathematics
Problem of the Month
November

Let $S = \{s_1, s_2, \dots, s_k\}$ be a finite set of integers. Suppose that there is a polynomial p with integer coefficients such that $p : S \rightarrow S$ is a permutation of S . Show that $p(p(s)) = s$ for all $s \in S$.