

ARUNDO WINDS

817 19th St Boulder, CO 80302 • arundowinds@gmail.com
443-812-5540 • www.colorado.edu/music/arundo

TESTIMONIALS

"It's rare to witness any group of musicians forge forward so tastefully, with such acumen, made of a common goal... but then you hear the Arundo Woodwind Quintet and swiftly come to take these characteristics for granted."

-Carter Pann, GRAMMY-nominated composer

"We have had the good fortune to have some very good programs but yours was really outstanding... Your musicality was excellent... The variety of music and of instrumentation was impressive. Your personal enthusiasm and dedication to our art showed through. It was obvious to all that you thoroughly enjoyed what you were doing. Your skill and musicianship told us that you have made a habit of enjoying excellence."

-Frank Parve, Foothills Symphony Guild

"The Arundo Winds are an inspiring quintet of young musicians that exude energy."

-Michelle Eudeikis, Colorado Youth Symphony Orchestras Executive Director

"A hot young group with passion and dedication...adventurous!"

-Hsing-ay Hsu, concert pianist and artistic administrator, Pendulum New Music

"My introduction to Arundo Winds was an informal concert in an intimate setting. The quality of performance was very high and it was obvious that the performers were enjoying their making of music and that the chemistry among the group was right on track... I see a bright future for this group and they are certainly deserving. And that is heartfelt."

-Sterling Nelson, Founder of the Evergreen Jazz Festival

Arundo Winds concert (May 15) was a delight! You all played with wonderful skill and expressiveness. The music selections were new to me and very enjoyable, they seemed to fit your personality as a group; lively, lighthearted, earnest.

-Donna Svenson