

UPCOMING ALUMNI EVENTS

FEBRUARY

WEBINAR: Leeds School of Business - The Secrets to Finding Work You Love -Thursday, February 23, 12 p.m. – 1p.m. (Free)

Kendra Prospero, a national career coach and recruiter, will lead you through key topics that will help you achieve greater success and happiness in your career. Her webinar will help you uncover a plan for how to manifest the work you were designed for and discover an easy formula for knowing your immediate next steps. Register at <http://bit.ly/2kARclG>.

Executives Tell All - February 23, 4-6p.m. (Free) - Center for Community, Abrams Lounge

Come learn from a panel of top executives who have achieved great success in their careers. Panelists include: Donna Northington, Senior Vice President of distribution, planning & strategy for Turner Content Distribution (TCD), McKay Belk, Managing Director of HWMB Advisors, Tom Becherer, President of Delta Bridge Inc., and Mike Rantz, Founding Chairman of Brokertec Global LLC. More information can be found in Career Buffs.

MARCH

Industry Night: Careers in Criminal Justice & Government Thursday, March 2, 4 - 7 p.m., UMC 235 (Free)

Meet organizations in the federal, state, and local government, law enforcement, military & security organizations. Come prepared with resumes, but know that many employers today ask that their applicants apply online. This event is your time to network and meet with representatives and learn more about their organization and positions. No pre-registration is necessary.

CMCI Spring Career Fair | Wednesday, March 8, 5:30-7:30pm, UMC Ballroom (Free)

Alumni, undergraduate and graduate students are invited to the College of Media, Communication and Information Spring Career Fair. Companies will be offering full-time jobs, part-time jobs and internships. Employer listings will be posted on the Facebook event (<http://bit.ly/2kdwo0p>). Find more details at <http://bit.ly/2kuyZ6X>.

Industry Night: Careers in Non-Profit | Thursday, March 9, 4-7p.m., UMC 235 (Free)

Meet organizations in the local and national non-profits with volunteer, internship, part-time and full-time positions. Come prepared with resumes, but know that many employers today ask that their applicants apply online. This event is your time to network and meet with representatives and learn more about their organization and positions. No pre-registration is necessary.

WEBINAR SERIES: Leeds School of Business - Managing Up: Creating an Effective Relationship with Your Boss – Part 1 | Thursday, March 23, 12noon – 1pm MST (Free)

In Part 1 of this 2-part series you will learn how well you are currently managing your boss and exactly where you can do better. Talane Miedaner will explore how to set healthy boundaries with your manager and colleagues, to gain the respect you deserve and ensure you're not being taken advantage of. You'll learn practical steps you can take to take charge of your relationships at work, both with your managers and colleagues, so that you can do your best work. It isn't required to do Part 1 of this series first, but you might find it helpful Register at bit.ly/2lst06U for Part 1.

Managing Up: Creating an Effective Relationship with Your Boss – Part 2 Thursday, March 30, 12noon – 1pm MST (Free)

In Part 2, we will cover:

- Personal Balance
- Installing Healthy Boundaries
- Initiative
- Teamwork
- Career Path

If you don't participate in Part 1, you may still participate in Part 2
Register at <http://bit.ly/2kAMLay>

Alumni receive two free career counseling appointments every year. Call 303-492-6541 to schedule an appointment.

Alumni Career Services
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

colorado.edu/career/alumni
Access Career Buffs through bit.ly/CareerBuffsLogin