

Diverse Musicians Alliance Program

Program Overview

The Diverse Musicians Alliance is working to improve the college climate for diversity. It is a developing program, launched in the 2004/2005 academic year, that assists students from diverse backgrounds succeed in their College of Music pursuits.

Recruiting Date	April - July
Decision Date	April - July
Admission Criteria	GPA above 2.25; agreement to meet at least twice a semester with cohort group; willingness to participate in group project
Feeder Programs	None
Funding Sources/Amount	CU-LEAD Scholarship
Individual Award Amount	$1,500/year for four years for new students (Some students still on $1,000/year awards)
Additional Incentives	Must maintain a 2.25 GPA with expectation to increase
Support Activities	Two to four mandatory meetings each semester; Help in finding tutors; CU-LEAD Alliance resources and activities
Leadership Activities	Students plan, promote, and present Multi-cultural Music Student Concert every fall semester; Opportunity to serve with the CU-LEAD Alliance Student Advisory Group
Year by Year Components	Year 1 In development Year 2 In development Year 3 In development Year 4 In development
Summer Bridge Program	None
Other Linked Programs	None
Fee for 1st Year Living	No Fee