

Affiliated Program

First Generation Scholars Program

The Center for Multicultural Affairs' First Generation Scholars Program is a comprehensive community based program, which includes student development, counseling, and academic support for eligible scholarship recipients. Students are welcomed into the program upon confirmation to the University of Colorado at Boulder and given assistance through graduation. Students must fulfill program requirements to maintain eligibility. Requirements are designed to foster individual academic excellence as well as to enhance social development through active participation in a variety of community building opportunities.

Program Overview

Recruiting Date	On-going until program filled
Decision Date	By beginning of academic year
Admission Criteria	Student must be first generation in their family to attend college; neither parent has any education beyond high school.
Feeder Programs	None
Funding Sources/Amount	The scholarship is awarded through the Financial Aid office. Eligibility and selection are determined through the Financial Aid office.
Individual Award Amount	$2000 per academic year
Additional Incentives	None
Support Activities	Individual and group counseling Women's Support Group Men's Support Group Peer Counseling Grief and Loss Support Group Cultural activities and programming Diversity Film Series Welcoming activities
Leadership Activities	Mentorship program First Generation Scholars Program Advisory Board Leadership seminars Community Service

Year by Year Components

- Year 1 Program orientation, Fall retreat, Year-end celebration
Academic and personal counseling
Individualized study skills assessment
Academic skills workshops
Student Life workshops
Mentee opportunities
- Year 2 Fall Meeting, Fall retreat (mentors), year-end celebration
Academic and personal counseling
Mentor freshman students
Academic skills workshops
Student Life workshops
Career Exploration workshops
Community Service
- Year 3 Fall Meeting, Fall retreat (mentors), year-end celebration
Academic and personal counseling
FGSP Student Advisory Board
Mentor students
Academic Skills workshops
Leadership Seminars
Student Life Workshops
Career Workshops
Community Service
- Year 4 Fall Meeting, Fall retreat (mentors), year-end celebration
Academic and personal counseling
Mentor students
FGSP Student Advisory Board
Student Life workshops
Career Workshops
Leadership Seminars
Community Service

Summer Bridge Program

None

Other Linked Programs

None

Fee for 1st Year Living

None