Upcoming Diversity Events at CU-Boulder

Branch Out- Body Image and Vision Boards

Tuesday, March 10, 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. in UMC 458

Join the DSCC and the CU Body Project on a presentation about body image followed by vision board making. Dr. Samantha Strife will present on the “perfect woman” and the internalized thin ideal.

http://www.facebook.com/TheDSCC

The Hunting Ground Sneak Preview

Tuesday, March 10, 7:30 p.m. in Muenzinger Auditorium

After the Oscar-nominated “The Invisible War,” a brutal expose of the problem of sexual assaults in the military, documaker Kirby Dick turns his lens on institutions of higher learning, seeing a similar institutional failure to act. The subject is already in the news thanks to a Department of Education investigation, reports of various protests (including a Columbia student who carries a mattress with her), proposed legislation and a Rolling Stone story — since disavowed — on the U. of Virginia. With a premiere where it was announced that Senators Barbara Boxer and Kirsten Gillibrand were in attendance, this galvanic and compelling doc seems likely to reverberate in the public discourse and beyond, likely matching or exceeding its predecessor’s performance when Radius releases it in March.

Ero-Ideologies: Writings on Spirituality, Art & Decolonization

Wednesday, March 11, 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Hazel Gates Woodruff Cottage

The Department of Ethnic Studies will host guest speaker, Laura Pérez. Pérez is an associate professor in the Department of Ethnic Studies at the University of California Berkeley and will discuss her new manuscript, “Ero-Ideologies: Writings on Art, Spirituality, and the Decolonial,” which will be published by Duke University Press. Light refreshments will be available. The event is co-sponsored by the Women and Gender Studies Department.

http://ethnicstudies.berkeley.edu/faculty/profile.php?person=12

It’s a Woman’s World: Women in Technology

Wednesday, March 11, 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Muenzinger Computer Lab (room 311)
It's a Woman’s World is a program aimed at teaching the women of CU skills and information about professions that are typically male dominated. Sessions will be taught by women in the professions who are ready to share their knowledge and know-how with you! Come learn about navigating the world of IT and how to protect your computer and your privacy against viruses and hackers with Lucille Contreras!

http://www.colorado.edu/wrc/events

For the Health of It - Health Disparities Among Women of Color

Wednesday, March 11, 4:00 p.m. in UMC 416

Join the Women's Resource Center for a presentation focusing on health disparities among marginalized groups of women of color and the importance of getting women from these backgrounds into the healthcare field. We will also be going over some brief history regarding exploitation of women in health and how that history manifests itself today. Presentation will be facilitated by Hibaq Loyan and Chloe Strascina-Dower.

http://www.colorado.edu/wrc/events

ROOTED: Better Allies Part 1

Every Wednesday, 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. in the Dennis Small Cultural Center (UMC 457)

This week’s ROOTED meeting will be the first of a two-part session on how to be a better ally. Representatives from the LGBTQ Resource Center will talk about sex and gender and how it applies to the LGBTQ community. Discussion about pronouns, gender identity, sexuality and gender expression will take place at the meeting. ROOTED aims to explore cultural and social issues in a welcoming, safe environment to encourage community discussion and engagement.

http://www.colorado.edu/umc/dscc/programs or contact Renee Marino at renee.marino@colorado.edu

Leeds School of Business Offering Free Tax Preparation

Wednesdays from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. until April 4 in Koelbel Business School Building (Room 375)

Students from CU-Boulder’s Leeds School of Business are offering free tax preparation services to individuals under the Internal Revenue Service-sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program. Services are operated on a first come first serve basis so early arrival is recommended due limited staffing and high volume of participants.

http://www.colorado.edu/news/features/leeds-school-students-offering-free-tax-
Kitchen Table

Thursday, March 12, 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. in the Women’s Resource Center (UMC 416)

Kitchen Table is a casual, social and safe space for women of color and multi-ethnic women in campus. Students, staff and faculty are welcome to attend. Come and enjoy free food, music and great conversation.

http://www.colorado.edu/wrc/events/peer-groups or contact Hibaq Loyan at wrcoutreach@colorado.edu

“The Morality of Capitalism” by Yaron Brook

Thursday, March 12, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in Norlin British Studies Room

This is a talk that is free and open to the public. Brook will discuss how he believes capitalism is not only moral, it is also the only moral social system.

Crafternoon

Friday, March 13, 2:00 p.m. in the Women’s Resource Center (UMC 416)

Come join the CU Women’s Resource Center for a fun afternoon of crafting. Come make new connections, relax, and let your creativity loose! All students, staff, and faculty are welcome!

http://www.colorado.edu/wrc/events

Call for Nominations – President’s Diversity Awards

Applications due March 13

The System Office of Academic Affairs’ is calling for nominations for the annual President’s Diversity Awards. This award recognizes significant achievements of faculty, staff and students who develop a culturally diverse, inclusive and compassionate university community. Four awards of $1,000 are given to individuals, projects, programs or practices that best initiate campus diversity goals.

https://www.cu.edu/office-academic-affairs/awards-grants/presidents-diversity-award
Women and Gender Studies Scholarships

Applications due March 13

The Women and Gender Studies Program awards 2 undergraduate student scholarships to WGST majors each spring, with the scholarship award amounts applied in the following academic year (fall 2015/spring 2016). Not only can a scholarship provide valuable funding toward your 2015-16 tuition bill, it is also an impressive credential to add to your resume! The application process is straightforward. Award amounts for both scholarships are $1,500 for the academic year.

http://wgst.colorado.edu/undergrad/scholarships

TRANSforming Gender Conference

March 13-14

The University of Colorado Boulder’s TRANSforming Gender Conference is celebrating its ninth year. The Conference hosts national and local transgender, genderqueer and two-spirit activists and scholars to raise awareness of how we can celebrate the diversity of gender and biological sex. This year’s conference will feature the following keynotes: Amos Mac and Mattee Jim.

Visit http://www.colorado.edu/glbtcrc/transforming-gender-conference/registration to register and for a full schedule.

Culture Shock

Saturday, March 14, Doors open at 6:30 p.m., Show begins at 7:00 p.m. in the UMC Glenn Miller Ballroom.

Join Sigma Psi Zeta, Pi Delta Psi and the Cultural Events Board as they present the 7th annual multicultural talent showcase, Culture Shock. The talent show will feature guest performances from Andrew Garcia, Brian Puspos and JR Aquino. The goal of the event is to raise multicultural awareness by showing that culture is not limited to a singular definition based on race and ethnicity. This event is sponsored by Student Outreach & Retention Center for Equity (SORCE), Arts and Sciences Student Government (ASSG), Cultural Unity and Engagement Center (CUE) and Residence Hall Association (RHA).

https://www.facebook.com/events/719946824788098/

Modern Love College Essay Contest
Applications due March 15

We’re inviting college students nationwide to open their hearts and laptops and write an essay that describes what love is like for them today. If you have a personal story that illustrates the current state of love and relationships, email it to us at essaycontest@nytimes.com. The winning author will receive $1,000 and his or her essay will be published in a special Modern Love column on May 2015, and on nytimes.com.
http://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2015/02/05/style/modern-love-college-essay-contest.html?_r=0

Equity & Excellence Nominations

Applications due March 31

The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Community Engagement (ODECE) seeks nominations for the Equity and Excellence Awards. This award is designed to recognize CU-Boulder undergraduate and graduate students, staff and faculty who have successfully and effectively worked to promote the principles of diversity and inclusive excellence in all campus involvement. Award recipients will be honored at a celebration on April 22 at Koenig Alumni Center.

http://www.colorado.edu/odece/equity-excellence-nomination-instructions

IMPART Grant

Applications due April 3

IMPART Fellowships (up to $4,000) are available to CU-Boulder faculty. We seek proposals that improve the campus environment in the area of gender, ethnic, and cultural diversity that promote inclusive excellence. Support for faculty members (especially Assistant Professors) to initiate new research and scholarly programs as well as expanding the undergraduate curriculum in the areas of ethnic and gender diversity are encouraged.

http://www.colorado.edu/odece/impart-application

What “Ferguson” Tells Us about Race, Gender and Justice: There, Here and Throughout World Affairs

Wednesday, April 8, Noon to 1:00 p.m. in Wolfe Law room 304

Dr. Hillary Potter, Associate Professor of the Department of Ethnic Studies, will speak at the Conference on World Affairs Concurrent Event sponsored by CU Boulder’s Chancellor’s Committee on Women (CCW).

More information to come at the Conference on World Affairs website http://www.colorado.edu/cwa/

Have a great week!

If you have an event for the weekly diversity news update, or would like to no longer receive the update, please send me an email at Hayley.Sanchez@colorado.edu

Hayley Sanchez
The Office of Diversity, Equity and Community Engagement