

Printing Your Electronic I-94

- Go to <https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/I94/request.html>
- Enter information as it appears on the visa utilized to enter the U.S. or passport for Canadian citizens.

When entering your First (Given) Name, do not include middle names, nicknames, or titles.

If you are unable to access your I-94 using your visa information, try entering your name:

- As it appears on your passport biographic page
- As it appears in the passport Machine Readable Zone
- As it appears on your airline ticket/ itinerary

- Review and print your electronic I-94 every time you re-enter the U.S. to ensure that the information is accurate and matches your other immigration documents. Do the same for your dependents.
 - Keep your I-94 printouts to document your maintenance of status. You do not have to turn them in when you depart the U.S.
 - Exception: To prove eligibility for automatic visa revalidation, you should travel with your I-94.
