Conference request notice sent to student email. Potential violation information and summary of alleged behavior provided.

Student calls Office of Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution (2-5550) to schedule meeting.

Student meets with staff to share their perspective on incident.

If student accepts responsibility, informal process may be offered.*

Staff member and student select formal or informal process.

Office of Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution

Conduct Violation Process

* Depending upon the nature of the incident or the potential violation, the informal process may not be offered.

 A student may appeal a finding of responsibility only if a sanction of suspension or expulsion is assigned.