

Parent Fund Gifts Enrich the Student Experience

These are just a few of the many programs made possible through the Parent Fund.

Health and Wellness

"Students don't always have crises during business hours. The Parent Fund helped us quickly add an after hours call-in counseling line. We are convinced we saved lives."

Karen Raforth

Director of Counseling and Psychological Services

Student Development

"Practice interviewing is one of our most popular services. Thanks to the Parent Fund all of our counselors can now record practice interviews and provide the specific feedback that students say is invaluable."

Lisa Severy

Director of Career Services

Center for Community

"With a new dining facility and student services all in one place, the Center for Community will be the hub of student life. It will literally transform how we serve students who live on and off-campus alike."

Dr. Julie Wong

Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs

Join a Community of Parents Who are Making a Difference

At CU-Boulder, we're proud to provide a quality education that creates tomorrow's leaders. We're equally committed to engaging parents and students alike in our campus community.

Many of the programs that make this happen could not exist without generous parents supporting CU-Boulder through the Parent Fund.

Parents Can Make All the Difference

Fact is, many support services that can make a difference in a successful college experience are not covered by tuition. Instead, CU must rely on private gifts to enrich the student experience.

The Parent Fund is an annual fund that helps support student success—from move in through graduation—by sustaining vital programs that contribute to your student’s education.

How does the Parent Fund work?

Every year parents are contacted by mail, student callers, or parent fund staff and are invited to make a gift that will support a variety of student services—many that exist only because of the Parent Fund.

How are Parent Fund gifts spent?

The Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, who determines how to support an ever-changing student body and respond to critical needs, administers the fund. Funding goes to programs that keep students healthy and safe, help students succeed, and prepare them to step out into the world.

How much should I give?

While your student is at CU-Boulder, we ask that you consider making the Parent Fund one of your top philanthropic priorities. Leadership gifts of $1,000+ annually receive special benefits and invitations to Parent Fund and university events.

Regardless of the size, every gift to the Parent Fund matters. Smaller gifts add up and quickly make a difference, too.

How do I make my gift?

- Call the CU Foundation Campus Programs office: 303-492-3440

“Thanks to the Parent Fund, safe late-night alternative programs are available for students such as Battle of the Bands and Friday night late night movies.”
