Bertram Morris (1908-1981) was born in Denver. Educated at Princeton and Cornell, he taught at the University of Colorado from 1947 until his retirement in 1977. Bertram Morris is remembered as much for his committed involvement in the social issues of his community as for his scholarly work. As an expression of admiration and gratitude, the Philosophy Department established this colloquium when Bertram Morris retired.

This year's colloquium is sponsored by the Morris Fund, the Department of Philosophy, the Center for Values and Social Policy, and grants from the President's Fund for the Humanities and the Graduate Committee on the Arts and Humanities.
