

DETAILED COURSE CALENDAR (REVISED)

Week	Topics and Readings
Week #1 August 22	Principles of Democracy and the Ideal State Course Introduction: What is Philosophical Discussion?; What is “Social/Political Philosophy”?
August 24	“The Nature of Justice” (READINGS: [SPP] Plato’s Republic , pp. 17-20)
August 26	“The Forms of Government and their Effects on People” (READINGS: [SPP] Plato’s Republic , pp. 26-45 and [SPP] Plato’s Crito, pp. 46-58). (First Reading Summary Due; Group 1 Report)
Week #2 August 29	Principles of Democracy and Ideal States (cont’d) + State of Nature and Civil Society: Monarchy “Socrates’ Death: Submission to Unjust Authority or the Highest Commitment to Philosophy?” (READINGS: [SPP] Plato’s Crito , pp. 46-58.
August 31	“The State of Nature” [SPP] Thomas Hobbes’ Leviathon , pp. 138-145. (Second Reading Summary Due; Group 2 Report)
September 2	“The State of Nature, cont’d” (READINGS: [SPP] Thomas Hobbes’ Leviathon , pp. 145-152)
Week #3 September 5	State of Nature and Civil Society: Monarchy + State of Nature and Civil Society: Liberal Democracy Labor Day....No Class
September 7	“The Rights of the Sovereign and the Liberty of Subjects” (READINGS: [SPP] Thomas Hobbes’ Leviathon , pp. 152-168) (Third Reading Summary Due; Group 3 Report)
September 9	“Locke on the State of Nature” (READINGS: [SPP] John Locke’s An Essay Concerning the True Original Extent and End of Civil Government , pp. 169-175).
Week #4 September 12	State of Nature and Civil Society: Liberal Democracy + Jefferson’s Liberal Democracy “Locke on the State of Nature” continued (NO NEW READINGS)
September 14	“Locke on Property, the Beginning of Political Societies and their Ends” (READINGS: [SPP] John Locke’s An Essay Concerning the True Original Extent and End of Civil Government , pp. 175-187). (Fourth Reading Summary Due; Group 4 Report)
First Paper Topics Distributed
September 16	“Locke on Forms of a Commonwealth, Subordination of its Powers and the Dissolution of Government” (READINGS: John Locke’s An Essay... , pp. 187-204).
Week #5 September 19	Jefferson’s Liberal Democracy for the United States + Zinn’s on History from Below “Jefferson on Natural Aristocrats, Majority Rule and Revolutions” (READINGS: [SPP] Thomas Jefferson’s Natural Aristocracy , pp. 266-270; The Principle of Majority Rule , p. 255; On Revolutions , pp. 256-257). (Fifth Reading Summary Due; Group 5 Report)
September 21	“Jefferson on Social and Political Change” (READINGS: [SPP] Jefferson The

Place and Value of Social and Political Change, pp. 264-277.

September 23 “Zinn on Tyranny” (READINGS: [PH] Chapter 4 “Tyranny is Tyranny,” pp. 59-75).

Week #6 NOTE: This week was spent catching up....no new readings, no reading summaries due until Week #7

Week #7 Utilitarian Liberal Democracy

October 3 “Mill’s theory of liberal democracy” (READINGS: [SPP] John Stuart Mill’s On Liberty, pp. 302-315).

(Sixth Reading Summary Due: Group 6 Report)

October 5 “Mill on Liberty cont’d” (READINGS: [SPP] John Stuart Mill’s On Liberty, pp. 315-337).

October 7 “Wrapping up Mill’s Utilitarian Theory of Liberal Democracy” (READINGS: [SPP] John Stuart Mill’s On Liberty, pp. 337-341).

Week #8 Capitalism, Marxist Communism, and Socialism

October 10 (READINGS: [SPP] Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels’ Manifesto of the Communist Party, pp. 342-356).

(Seventh Reading Summary Due: Group 7 Report)

October 12 Marx and Engels’ continued (no new readings)

October 14 (READINGS: [SPP] Karl Marx’s A Contribution to the Critique of Political Economy, pp. 379-380; (PH) Chapter 13, “The Socialist Challenge”).

Week #9 Anarchism

October 17 (Res) Emma Goldman’s “Anarchism: What It Really Stands For?”.
(Eighth Reading Summary Due: Group 8 Report)

October 19 (D) Read up to Chapter 6; Anarchism continued.
First Paper Due tomorrow, October 20.

October 21 (Res) Emma Goldman’s “The Tragedy of Women’s Emancipation”

Week #10 Anarchism ... / ... Civil Disobedience

October 24 Discussion of Ursula Leguin’s Novel chapters 1-6

(Ninth Reading Summary Due: Group 9 Report)

October 26 (D) Read up to Chapter 8. (no new readings)

October 28 (D) Complete. More discussion of the implications Leguin’s The Dispossessed.

Week #11 Civil Disobedience ... / ... Contemporary Issues in the United States

October 31 November 2 (READINGS: [SPP] Henry David Thoreau’s On the Duty of civil Disobedience, pp. 283-301).

(Tenth Reading Summary Due: Group 10 Report)

November 2 More on Thoreau’s Duty of Civil Disobedience (no new readings)

November 4 (READINGS: [SPP] Mohandas K. Gandhi’s Collected Writings on Non-Violent Resistance

