University of Colorado at Boulder Police are investigating an assault that occurred late in the evening of August 22, 2009.

At about 11:30 p.m. on August 22, 2009, police responded to the report of a fight at the Euclid Auto Park at 18th St. and Euclid Ave. After arriving, officers met with the victim, a 19-year-old CU student. The victim said he and two friends had been walking in a stairwell at the auto park a few minutes earlier. They encountered a group of about 12 males, and some words were exchanged between the two groups. The victim said he was asked, "Do you want to fight?" by three of the males with the other group. The victim said he replied, "No." The victim said he was three struck six times by the three males.

The victim was treated at Community Hospital for injuries, but the injuries were deemed not to be serious.

The victim described the persons who struck him as all white males, one about 6-2 wearing a brown shirt with brown hair, the second was about 6-2 wearing a white shirt, and third was about 6-0, had blond hair and was wearing either a black or brown shirt.

Anyone with information pertaining to this incident is asked to contact police investigators at (303) 492-8168.
