

DIVERSITY Statement

The University of Colorado's Parking & Transportation Services embraces diversity. We strive to recognize differences between people as they exist in our interactions with others. We approach these differences with accommodation, flexibility, acceptance, and respect. Our purpose and commitment regarding diversity is to honor the rights and provide for the needs of all people equally.

