*Note: Total tuition does NOT include the portion of tuition paid by COF for undergraduate students who pay the in-state (resident) tuition rate. Only the following fees will be partially refunded: student fee, capital construction fee and athletic fee.

- New, transfer, or readmit students who withdraw at any point during their first semester in a degree program at CU will be responsible for the new student fee.
Fall 2013 Withdrawal Information

Withdrawal Procedure:
Registered students may withdraw by dropping all of their main campus courses through their student portal until the drop deadline. To officially withdraw, students may submit the Fall 2013 Withdrawal form through mail, fax, visit the Registrar’s Office, or by email. To withdraw by email, an email must be sent from their CU email account. If a Dean’s or an ISSS advisor’s signature is required, please submit the Withdrawal form instead. More information here: registrar.colorado.edu/students/withdraw.html.

International Students
International students MUST consult with International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) and receive a signature on their withdrawal form BEFORE they withdraw. Failure to check with ISSS before withdrawing could possibly endanger immigration status. Contact Information: Center for Community S355, or 303-492-9557.

Student Athlete
Student athletes should contact the Herbst Academic Center before withdrawing at 303-492-6591.

Continuing Education (CEPS)
Students enrolled in CEPS courses only must contact CEPS to be withdrawn. Degree-seeking students registered for CEPS and main campus courses may request the Office of the Registrar to drop their CEPS courses also. List this on the withdrawal form, email, or letter. Contact Information: 303-492-5148, or ceregistration@colorado.edu.

Military Active Duty, Reservists, National Guard, and Emergency Personnel
Students called to active duty for military or emergency services should let the Withdrawal Coordinator know that their withdrawal is mandated by providing a copy of their orders. After providing orders, the student may be placed on the Time Off program at no charge.

Students who selected Student Opportunity fees will be billed for them. The deadline to request a refund of these fees is the drop deadline. For a refund, please contact those offices who provide the services directly:
http://registrar.colorado.edu/students/registration/registration_packet/student_opportunities.html.

CU Recreation Center
Withdrawn students are not eligible to use the Recreation Center. Students on the StayConnected or the Time Off Program may purchase a recreation center pass. For refunds or exceptions, contact the CU Recreation Center cashiers at 303-492-6880.

Planning to Return to CU?
Degrees seeking undergraduate students are eligible to return to the University within 1-3 semesters (including summer, up to 4 with restrictions) from their last graduated semester without reapplying. Please refer to the Return Chart for the return semester.
http://registrar.colorado.edu/students/pdf/withdrawal_return_chart.pdf. While away, students may register for their return semester with the same priority as before. Their CU email and portal account will remain active. To access certain benefits while away, undergraduate students may apply for the StayConnected program. More information here: registrar.colorado.edu/students/stayconnected.html.

Graduate, Law and MBA students who would like to take 1-3 semesters off (including summer,) need to apply for the Time Off Program (TOP). The student will register for the return semester with the same priority as before and will be able to access certain benefits while away. Approval signatures are required. More information here: http://registrar.colorado.edu/students/timeoffprogram.html.
