Welcome

Thank you for your interest in the University of Colorado Boulder (CU Boulder), one of the top public comprehensive research universities in the world. The following pages introduce you to the application process at CU Boulder. For more information on any of our programs, we encourage you to go to colorado.edu/admissions. There is an application form at the end of this packet; however, we strongly encourage you to apply online through mycuboulder.colorado.edu. We look forward to receiving your application!

Who is an International Student?

You are an international student if you have, or will be applying for, a temporary U.S. visa such as an F-1 or J-1. All non-U.S. citizens who are not permanent residents of the United States, refugees or asylum seekers are international students. If you have established permanent resident status in the United States and have an alien registration number, or if you have submitted the Form I-485 to the Department of Homeland Security in application for permanent residency status and have received a receipt for the form, you are not considered an international student.

Undergraduate Students

You are an undergraduate student if you have completed high school and are pursuing a bachelor’s degree.

• You are a freshman undergraduate student if you are currently in high school or you have earned a high school diploma or its equivalent and have not enrolled in a college or university since graduation.

• You are a transfer undergraduate student if you have enrolled at another college or university since graduation from high school, but have not completed a bachelor’s degree. Preparatory years do not count as university-level work. Students applying for a second undergraduate degree will follow transfer admission guidelines.

Graduate Students

You are a graduate student if you have completed or will complete a four-year bachelor’s degree program or its equivalent at a college or university. All graduate students should visit colorado.edu/admissions/graduate for more information.

Gain Access to Important CU Boulder Information

An important step in the admission process at CU Boulder is to create an account on our online student portal, MyCUBoulder. Through this account, you will be able to apply for admission, check your application status, view personalized information and much more. Create your account at mycuboulder.colorado.edu.

Freshman Admission

colorado.edu/admissions/apply

Many factors are considered in evaluating your application for admission to CU Boulder. Your academic performance in high school—your high school grade point average (GPA) and the quality of your course work—is the most important indicator of success. We also consider other factors, including your English proficiency test scores (once you are academically admitted), the trend in your grades, your personal essays and your potential contributions to the campus community. The SAT/ACT is not required unless you are graduating from a U.S. high school, would like to be considered for merit-based freshman scholarships or hold a U.S. passport.

The table below shows the academic qualifications of the middle 50 percent of the fall freshman class admitted to CU Boulder. Twenty-five percent of freshmen place above these figures and 25 percent place below. Using this chart, you can compare your academic standing and test scores to those in the fall freshman class. We expect the standings for next fall to be similar.

Transfer Admission

colorado.edu/admissions

We consider a number of factors when you apply as a transfer student. The types of courses you have taken are as important as your grade point average. We also consider the courses you are enrolled in at the time of application and successful completion of prerequisite or recommended courses. We also consider your academic performance in high school. For additional information, see our website.

Second Undergraduate Degree Applicants

If you have received a bachelor’s degree, you may apply for a second undergraduate degree at CU Boulder. However, you should first explore various options in graduate study at the university. If you apply for a second undergraduate degree, you will follow transfer admission guidelines. You must apply to a specific major, and it cannot be the same major in which your received your first undergraduate degree; applications for open option or undetermined majors cannot be considered. If you wish to complete prerequisite courses for a graduate program or do not plan to complete a second undergraduate degree, visit ce.colorado.edu.

The College of Media, Communication and Information and the Leeds School of Business do not admit students who have already completed an undergraduate degree. These students are strongly encouraged to investigate graduate study instead.
Teacher Education Applicants

In addition to two bachelor degree programs, the School of Education also offers licensure programs in elementary (K-6), secondary and K–12 music education. The licensure fields in secondary education include English, foreign language, mathematics, science and social studies. Candidates complete the licensure program concurrently with their bachelor’s degree. Students can explore education courses and apply during their freshman year to be potentially admitted to the school in their sophomore year. If you have completed a four-year undergraduate degree program, and wish to apply directly to the teacher licensure program you should submit your application and official credentials directly to:

F-1 Students Transferring from U.S. Schools

International students with F-1 immigration status who are transferring from one U.S. institution to another must complete the F-1 immigration transfer form after admission is finalized. This form is automatically sent to you if necessary. Only admitted students who have decided to attend CU Boulder are required to complete this form; it is not required for an admission decision.

Application Deadlines

Spring Applicants

Spring applications are processed on a rolling basis. We begin notifying applicants about admission decisions in October. Decisions are made approximately four to six weeks after an application is complete. We give full consideration to applications that are complete (including the application fee and all required credentials) by the October 1 deadline.

Summer and Fall Applicants

Freshman Early Action Deadline (non-binding)

If you submit your application and postmark all supporting documents by November 15, you will be considered an early action applicant. As an early action applicant, you will be notified on or before February 1 whether you have been offered admission, denied admission or had your admission decision deferred to April 1. Applicants denied admission in early action may not submit additional information and may not reapply for the freshman application deadline.

Early action applicants are not required to enroll at CU Boulder.

Freshman Application Deadline

If you apply for the summer or fall term after November 15, you will need to submit your application and postmark all supporting documents no later than January 15. You will then be notified of your admission decision by April 1.

Transfer Application Deadline

Transfer applications for summer and fall are processed on a rolling basis. We begin notifying applicants about admission decisions in March. We give full consideration to applications that are complete (including the application fee and all required credentials) by the deadline.

Application Process

Your file will be reviewed after the following items have been received: 1) a complete application, 2) the application fee, 3) all complete and official academic documents, 4) personal essays and 5) one letter of recommendation. If you are academically eligible for admission to the university, your file will then be checked for proof of adequate English proficiency, financial support and other information required by law prior to issuing immigration documentation.

Undergraduate applications are reviewed and all decisions are made in the Office of Admissions. Missing information or credentials delay application processing and may affect your chances for admission.

Application Checklist

Required for academic admission consideration:

1. Undergraduate Application for Admission (completed and signed)
2. $70 nonrefundable application fee
3. Official high school transcript*
4. Official university transcripts* (if applicable)
5. Two personal essays (one for transfer students)
6. One academic letter of recommendation (freshmen only)

Required for immigration documentation and full admission:

1. Official test scores on the TOEFL/IELTS
2. Financial support statement
3. Immigration transfer form (U.S. transfer students only)
4. Scan of your passport

Optional:

- Resume/curriculum vitae (CV)
- Official SAT or ACT test scores (required if you are graduating from a U.S. high school or if you are a U.S. passport holder. If you are not graduating from a U.S. high school, these test scores are required only if you would like to be considered for a merit-based scholarship.)

*See information under Required Credentials section for details.
We encourage transfer students to apply online through their MyCU Boulder account at mycuboulder.colorado.edu freshmen to use the Common Application at commonapp.org.

Submission of a Paper Application
When the Office of Admissions receives your application, it is scanned into our computer system. To ensure that your application is processed correctly, follow these guidelines:
• Print clearly in black ink; do not type your information.
• Print your last name (family name or surname), first name (given name), and middle initial at the top of every page of the application.
• Print your full legal name and birth date at the top of every supporting document you include with your application.
• Do not staple pages of your application together.
• Be sure to sign and complete your application. Missing information or credentials delay application processing and may affect your chances for admission. Incomplete applications cannot be evaluated until all necessary items are received.

All academic documents received by the University of Colorado Boulder become the property of the university. The university scans all transcripts into an electronic application file and destroys the paper copy shortly after that. We are unable to return any original or official transcripts to the student. If you will have trouble replacing your transcripts or any of your academic documents, please contact the International Admissions Team at intladm@colorado.edu for possible alternatives to sending your original or expensive documents. This does not include transcripts from U.S. schools, which must be official and must be sent to our office directly from the U.S. school.

Permanent Address
You must include a non-U.S. address to meet immigration requirements (Item 13 on the Application).

Mailing Address
Keep your mailing address current at all times. We use it to mail your Form I-20 for immigration purposes, if applicable. If your address changes or is no longer valid, update it in the “My Information” section of your MyCU Boulder account.

Email Address
List a valid and active email address on your application. Keep your email address updated at all times. We use it to email your official admission notification. If your email address changes or is no longer valid, update it in the “My Information” section of your MyCU Boulder account. Additional information regarding admission, registration, New Student & Family Programs and preparing for your arrival at CU Boulder will be sent to your email address.

Social Security Number
International students usually do not have a U.S. Social Security number, so you may leave this portion of the application blank. You will be assigned a student identification number after your application is received.

High School Academic History
High School Academic History and Minimum Academic Preparation Standards (MAPS) are required for any international student who has completed more than four semesters at any U.S. high school. International students with four or less semesters of U.S. schooling should refer to their country’s specific requirements at colorado.edu/admissions/selection/countryspecificrequirements and may leave this section (Item 29) blank.

Application Fee
A nonrefundable application fee of $70 U.S. is required. The fee should be submitted in the form of an international money order or a check drawn from a U.S. bank and made payable to the University of Colorado. Print your full name and birth date on your check or money order so that it can be properly credited to your application. We cannot accept credit cards or cash with the printed application. Credit cards are accepted for the application fee if you apply online.

If you are currently enrolled in an undergraduate degree program at another University of Colorado campus, and you are applying to an undergraduate degree program on the Boulder campus, you are not required to pay the application fee.

Choosing a Program of Study
When you apply, you need to choose a major in one of CU Boulder’s colleges or schools. Refer to page 7.

If you have not decided which major you are interested in, you can select an “open option” major. This allows you to explore different options during your first year of study. After this period, you will decide on a specific major for your remaining years. If you are a transfer student with more than 24 semester hours of university work completed or in progress, you must apply to a specific major—do not choose open option.

You can apply for transfer to another CU Boulder college or school through the Intrauniversity Transfer (IUT) process after you have enrolled. Criteria for transferring from one college or school to another are competitive, and each college and school establishes its own standards.

Minor programs are offered in a number of undergraduate departments and programs in the College of Arts and Sciences, the Leeds School of Business, and the College of Engineering and Applied Science. Certificate programs are also available through several academic departments.

Two different degrees, either from the same college or school or from different colleges or schools, may be earned provided that certain conditions are met. You are admitted to one major and degree program initially but may pursue a second degree during your first semester of enrollment.

Required Credentials
We can accept credentials or information by fax or email as official documentation as long as it is clearly sent directly from the issuing institution. Hard copies are also accepted by mail; see next section. Do not submit samples or photographs of design or artwork. A portfolio is not used for admission purposes and cannot be returned to you.

Official Transcripts
Official certified copies of your previous academic records (transcripts) are required for us to begin processing your application. All records should be submitted with original stamps and signatures. For the following countries, only the official English language transcript is required: Australia, Bangladesh, Bahrain, Botswana, Canada (unless in Quebec), Commonwealth Caribbean,
Egypt, Ethiopia, Ghana, Hong Kong, Iceland, India, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Japan, Kenya, Kuwait, Lebanon, Liberia, Malaysia, Nepal, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nigeria, Norway, Pakistan, Philippines, Rwanda, Saudi Arabia, Sierra Leone, Singapore, South Africa, South Korea, Sweden, Sudan, Taiwan, Tanzania, Territories of the Pacific, Thailand, UAE, Uganda, UK, Yemen, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

For all other countries, all records should be submitted in the native language with original stamps. All credentials written in languages other than English must be accompanied by a literal certified English translation.

Freshman applicants must submit official academic records from all high schools attended. Transcripts for any university-level work taken during high school must be submitted after admission is finalized and the work is complete.

Transfer applicants must submit official academic records from both high school and colleges/universities attended.

For your high school attendance through grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 (and grade 13 if your secondary school system requires that), submit all official transcripts, mark sheets or grade reports, and any certificates, degrees, diplomas or statements of graduation or completion.

For your college/university attendance (tertiary level), submit all official transcripts, mark sheets or grade reports, and any certificates, degrees, diplomas or statements of graduation or completion from each college or university attended (except any campus of the University of Colorado). Documentation is required regardless of the length of attendance, whether or not courses were completed, and whether or not you believe the record will affect your admission or transfer credit. Failure to list and submit transcripts from all institutions previously attended before enrolling at CU Boulder is considered to be a violation of academic ethics and may result in the cancellation of your admission or dismissal from the university.

If you are admitted while still attending classes, your final records will be required upon completion of the course work or program.

Official transcripts may be sent to transcripts@colorado.edu. Emailed transcripts must come from a counselor or other school official. Emailed transcripts from a student are not accepted.

Students from China and India

Students from China and India must be particularly careful to submit complete official academic credentials (for university-level work). Every page of each document must bear an original stamp or seal of the institution. Chinese students must submit both Chinese language and English translations of transcripts and diplomas and must submit diplomas showing every degree awarded. Students from India must submit individual mark sheets for each semester or year, in addition to separate diplomas showing every degree awarded.

Personal Essays

Personal essays are required. Applications without essays are considered incomplete and will not be reviewed. Include your full name and birth date at the top of each page of your essays.

Your personal essays are the best way for us to learn about you as an individual and to evaluate your academic performance within an appropriate context. Please remember that there are no “correct” answers to these questions—your responses should reflect the unique aspects and experiences of your life. Consider reflecting on challenges you’ve overcome, your family or cultural heritage, your academic or cocurricular achievements, or specific moments that helped to define your character.

Letter of Recommendation

One academic letter of recommendation is required. You may submit up to three additional letters of recommendation if you wish. Your full legal name should be at the top of recommendation letters. You can access our recommendation request form at colorado.edu/admissions/apply/forms.

SAT or ACT Test Scores (Optional)

SAT or ACT scores are required if you are graduating from a U.S. high school or if you are a U.S. passport holder. If you are not graduating from a U.S. high school, these test scores are required only if you would like to be considered for a merit-based scholarship. These scholarships are highly competitive so a high score is needed to be a likely scholarship candidate.

English Language Proficiency (TOEFL/IELTS)

To be enrolled at CU-Boulder, you must be proficient in English. The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score is required unless English is your native language. If you have completed at least two years of full-time academic study at a U.S. high school, or at least one year of full-time academic study at a U.S. college of university, or if you have attended an institution in a country where English is the native language, you have fulfilled the English proficiency requirement.

While it is possible to be academically admitted to the university prior to sending your TOEFL/IELTS score, your Form I-20 immigration document cannot be issued until we receive your official results and the English proficiency requirement is met.

For more information on the TOEFL, go to www.toefl.org. The CU-Boulder college code for the TOEFL is 4841. For more information on the IELTS, go to www.ielts.org. CU-Boulder does not accept any other tests as proof of English proficiency.

If you are academically eligible for admission to the university and you need a Form I-20 (for an F-1 visa) or a Form DS-2019 (for a J-1 visa), you must provide the financial statement.

If you are applying to one or both of the campuses listed above, you must submit a separate application, official credentials, and appropriate fee to each campus. You may make copies of the application in this packet and use it to apply to other CU campuses.

The CU Boulder’s Application for Admission and all related admissions materials are provided free of charge. CU-Boulder has not authorized any international agent to charge any external or additional fees for the application materials or admission services nor to make an admission commitment or guarantee. All admission decisions are made by the internal committees of CU-Boulder, and official correspondence concerning offers of admission will come directly from the Office of Admissions.
Choosing a Major

Read all instructions and notes to avoid delays in processing your application. These are the colleges, schools, and majors that are available to undergraduate freshman and transfer students. Select only one college or school and major. Write the code in Item #2 of the Undergraduate Application for Admission.

If you are a transfer student with more than 24 semester hours of college work completed or in progress, you must apply to a specific major—do not choose open option.

If you have already received an undergraduate degree, you must select a specific major different from your first undergraduate degree program; applications for open option majors cannot be considered.

See Notes on Majors for specifics.

35. Are you interested in a career in the education field? Answering “yes” will allow us to share your contact information with the School of Education. [ ] Yes [ ] No

36. Personal Essays
The personal essays are required. Applications without essays are considered incomplete and will not be forwarded to the admission committee for review.

Your personal essays are the best way for us to learn about you as an individual and to evaluate your academic performance within an appropriate context. Please remember that there are no “correct” answers to these questions—your responses should reflect the unique aspects and experiences of your life.
Freshman Personal Essay (required for freshmen only, 250 to 650 words): Choose one of the five essays from the Common Application.

1. Some students have a background, identity, interest or talent that is so meaningful they believe their application would be incomplete without it. If this sounds like you, then please share your story.

2. The lessons we take from failure can be fundamental to later success. Recount an incident or time when you experienced failure. How did it affect you, and what did you learn from the experience?

3. Reflect on a time when you challenged a belief or idea. What prompted you to act? Would you make the same decision again?

4. Describe a problem you’ve solved or a problem you’d like to solve. It can be an intellectual challenge, a research query, an ethical dilemma—anything that is of personal importance, no matter the scale. Explain its significance to you and what steps you took or could be taken to identify a solution.

5. Discuss an accomplishment or event, formal or informal, that marked your transition from childhood to adulthood within your culture, community or family.

Freshman Writing Supplement (required for freshmen only, 250 to 500 words): In addition to the Common Application essay, you are required to respond to a CU Boulder specific essay question.

As a vibrant community of learners dedicated to inclusive excellence, the students, faculty and staff at the University of Colorado Boulder seek to be open and respectful of contrasting beliefs and opinions. Every student has a unique life experience and a set of circumstances by which they are shaped and influenced. Your background may have been shaped by family history, cultural traditions, race, ethnicity, religion, politics, income, ideology, gender identity or sexual orientation.

Reflect on your unique background and tell us about a time when you had to relate to someone whose life experience was very different from your own. How did you approach the difference? If put in a similar situation again today, would you respond differently? If so, how?

Transfer Personal Statement (required for transfers only, 250 to 650 words):

Inclusive excellence and diversity play a central role at the University of Colorado Boulder and within our learning environments. Please describe why diverse and inclusive learning environments are important and how CU Boulder fits with your academic and professional goals.
