This class will focus on the Maya Civilization that flourished between 300 B.C and A.D. 1519. The course will explore how and why the Maya developed a sophisticated writing system, compiled books of astronomy, employed the concept of zero in their mathematics, and built many large cities with temple-pyramids and palaces.

Approved for Arts & Sciences CORE: Human Diversity

For more course descriptions go to: http://srp.colorado.edu/