This course provides an overview of the economy, examining the flow of resources and outputs and the factors determining levels of income and prices. The class will explore policy problems of inflation, unemployment, and economic growth. Prerequisite: ECON 2010.

NOTE: Students must register for the recitation attached to this course.

Approved for A&S CORE: Contemporary Societies